

Do you need to be certified as a pesticide applicator?

Are you applying pesticides to your own property or your employer's property to grow crops?

Yes

Are you applying or supervising the application of pesticides labeled as restricted use?

Yes
You must be certified as a private applicator.

No
Certification is not required.

No

Are you applying pesticides for a company that advertises pesticide applications for hire?

Yes

Are you applying general use antimicrobial pesticides indoors with no potential movement to surface or ground water?

No

At work, are you only using general use, ready to use pesticide products?

No

Are you applying restricted use pesticides?

Yes
Certification is not required.

Yes
Certification is not required.

No

Are you applying antimicrobial pesticides with no potential movement to surface or ground water?

No

Does your company have an approved registered applicator training program?

Yes
You must be certified as a commercial applicator.

Yes
Certification is not required.

No
You must be certified as a commercial applicator.

Yes

You must be registered or certified as a commercial applicator.

No

You must be certified as a commercial applicator.

