If a party files a timely appeal to the* civil service commission within 28 calendar days after the date the decision was issued, the effective date of the decision is automatically stayed pending further order of the employment relations board or civil service commission.

- (b) Exception; grievant's reinstatement ordered. *If a final decision of an adjudicating officer orders an appointing authority to reinstate a grievant who had been dismissed for cause, the appointing authority, as a condition of further appeal to the civil service commission, shall either (1) reinstate the grievant or (2) restore the grievant's base pay and medical, dental, and vision group insurance. 4. STANDARDS

A. Eligibility. These procedures are only available to nonexclusively represented employees (NEREs), except that exclusively represented employees may file grievances over (1) creation or abolition of classified positions for reasons other than administrative efficiency and (2) actions during prior employment as a NERE.

B. Grievance Procedures at the Agency Level.

1. Step-1 grievances.

- a. Filing. A grievant must file a signed, written grievance on a CS-100 form with the Step-1 Official. A grievant may file a grievance directly at step 2 if dismissed, suspended without pay, demoted, laid off, or otherwise aggrieved by an action by management above the level of the Step-1 Official; the grievant must indicate on the CS-100 that the grievance initiated at Step 2.

- b. Time limits. A grievance must be filed within 14 calendar days after a grievant knew of or reasonably should have known of the grievance.
- c. Step-1 conference. The Step-1 Official shall hold an informal conference with a grievant, unless the grievant declines to attend.
- d. Step-1 answer. The Step-1 Official shall issue a written answer to a grievant within 14 calendar days after a grievance is filed.

2. Step-2 grievances.

- a. Filing. A grievant who may bypass Step 1 under Standard 4.B.1.a or who is unsatisfied with a Step-1 Official's written answer or failure to answer may file a signed, written step-2 grievance on a CS-100 with the Step-2 Official. If a grievant does not timely file at step 2, a grievance is closed.
- b. Time limit. If a Step-1 Official timely issues a written answer, a grievant must file any step-2 grievance within 14 calendar days after issuance. The date issued is presumed to be the date on the answer. If no written answer is timely issued, the grievance is presumed denied and any step-2 grievance must be filed with the Step-2 Official within 21 calendar days after the step-1 answer was due.
- c. Step-2 conference. A Step-2 Official may hold any conference deemed necessary. If a grievance began at step 2, the Step-2 official must offer an informal conference to the grievant.
- d. Step-2 answer. A Step-2 Official shall issue a written answer to a grievant within 28 calendar days after a step-2 grievance is filed.

3. Group grievances. Employees with grievances with common issues of fact and law may jointly file a single CS-100. Each joint grievant must sign the form. A group grievance must be filed directly at step 2. An appointing authority may process the grievance as a group grievance or as separate grievances. An appointing authority may also process separate grievances with common issues of fact and law as a group grievance.

C. Grievance Appeals to the Civil Service Hearings Office (CSHO).

1. Authorization. A grievant unsatisfied with a Step-2 Official's answer or failure to issue a timely, written answer may file a signed, written grievance appeal on a CS-100 form with the CSHO. If a grievant does not timely file a grievance appeal, the grievance is closed.
2. Time limit. If a Step-2 Official timely issues a written answer, a grievant must file any appeal to the CSHO within 28 calendar days after issuance. The date issued is presumed to be the date on the answer. If no written answer is timely issued, the grievance is presumed denied and any appeal must be filed with the CSHO within 42 calendar days after the step-2 answer was due.
3. Contents. An appeal must include the following on a CS-100 form:

- a. The grievant's (1) name, (2) employee ID number, (3) employing agency, (4) mailing address, (5) telephone number, and (6) email address.
 - b. Any authorized representative's (1) name, (2) organization, (3) mailing address, (4) telephone number, and (5) email address.
 - c. A complete copy of the grievance chain, including all step-1 and step-2 grievances and answers.
 - d. A concise statement of the basis for the grievance appeal, including grounds for the appeal under rule 8-2.2.
 - e. A concise statement of the relief sought, which must be within the jurisdiction of a hearing officer to grant.
4. Administrative review. The CSHO administrative officer shall review all grievance appeals and summarily dismiss any meeting the following criteria:
- a. Not authorized. The CSHO lacks authority to consider the grievance appeal under the Civil Service rules and regulations because (1) the grievant is not authorized to file the grievance or grievance appeal, (2) the subject matter is not reviewable in the forum, or (3) the grievant seeks unauthorized relief.
 - b. Lack of jurisdiction. Civil Service lacks jurisdiction over a necessary party or the subject matter of the grievance.
 - c. Untimeliness. The grievance or grievance appeal was untimely.
 - d. Another action pending. Another Civil Service action between the same parties involves substantially the same grievance.
 - e. Barred by prior claim. Substantially the same grievance was adjudicated to finality in another action with the same parties.
 - f. Failure to respond. The grievant fails to respond to a deficiency notice from Civil Service staff.

D. Timely Filing.

1. Based on receipt. A timely grievance or grievance appeal must be received in the appropriate office by 5:00 pm on the deadline specified in this regulation. Time is counted as provided in Standard B of regulation 8.06.
2. Extensions. A grievant and the appropriate Step-1 or Step-2 Official may agree in writing to extend the time to file a grievance or an answer. Extensions cannot exceed 6 months. A grievant must request any extension to file a grievance appeal to the CSHO, which has discretion to grant any extensions.
3. Filing Method. A grievance or grievance appeal must be filed as follows:
 - a. Grievance. A grievance may be filed in person, by mail, or by other courier to the designated office of the appropriate official. If a Step-1 or Step-2 Official has established an email address to receive grievances, documents may be filed there instead.
 - b. Grievance appeal. Unless the CSHO administrative officer grants advance permission to file differently, a grievance appeal must be filed as a Microsoft Word or Adobe PDF attachment at MCSC-Hearings@mi.gov.

4. Late filing. To file a grievance or grievance appeal after a deadline, a grievant must establish good cause or special extenuating circumstances excusing the lateness. If denying a grievance for untimeliness, a Step-1 or Step-2 Official must evaluate the merits of any excuse for lateness. A grievant may file a grievance appeal over an otherwise appealable grievance to the CSHO for a de novo consideration of the excuse.
 - a. Up to 28 days. A filing received up to 28 calendar days late is denied as untimely, unless the filing party establishes good cause.
 - b. Over 29 days and under one year. A filing received more than 28 calendar days but less than 1 year late is denied as untimely, unless the filing party establishes special extenuating circumstances.
 - c. One year late. A filing received one year or more late is denied as untimely.

E. Prehearing Procedures.

1. Assignment. If a grievance appeal is not summarily dismissed and the arbitration alternative in Standard 4.K is not elected, the grievance appeal is assigned to a hearing officer for a fair, impartial, and expeditious adjudication of the grievance appeal. Separate appeals with common issues of fact and law may be consolidated for consideration by the CSHO, notwithstanding an appointing authority's treatment of grievances at the agency level.
2. Mediation. The hearing officer may require mediation of a grievance appeal. Any mediator cannot (1) be assigned as hearing officer in the same matter or (2) later testify on any aspect of the mediation.
3. Limit on communications. A hearing officer shall not communicate privately on the facts or merits of a pending matter with any party or representative. The hearing officer may communicate privately as needed for matters unrelated to the facts or merits.
4. Hearing officer disqualification. A hearing officer who cannot impartially decide a matter is disqualified. A party or the hearing officer may move to disqualify the hearing officer within 14 calendar days after the moving party knew or reasonably should have known the grounds for disqualification.
 - a. Grounds. Grounds to disqualify include the following:
 - (1) Personal bias or prejudice for or against a party or representative.
 - (2) Consultation by a party or representative on the pending matter before assignment.
 - (3) Employment by a party or representative in any private matter in the past five years. Appointment as a neutral arbitrator is not disqualifying.
 - (4) The hearing officer or a member of the officer's family or household is (a) a party, (b) a party's representative, or (c) a person with more than a de minimis interest that the proceeding could substantially affect.
 - b. Ruling. The assigned hearing officer shall decide the motion. If denied, within seven calendar days, a moving party may ask in writing for the State Personnel Director to exercise superintending control and disqualify the hearing officer. The director's decision is final. After any disqualification, the administrative officer shall assign the matter to another hearing officer.

5. Prehearing conference. The hearing officer may conduct a prehearing conference to identify material facts in dispute and simplify issues; obtain stipulations, admissions of fact, and documents to avoid unnecessary proofs or witnesses; exchange documents; and take other actions to facilitate fair and expeditious adjudication.
6. Submissions and proof of service. If a party submits any written material to the hearing officer, the party shall concurrently serve a complete copy on all other parties and certify in writing how every other party was served. Copying all parties and representatives on an email submission is sufficient proof of service.
7. Summary disposition. If there is no genuine issue of material fact, a party may file a motion for summary dismissal or the hearing officer may decide the matter without a contested hearing based on the grievance record and written submissions of the parties, including affidavits.

F. Discovery.

1. Authority to issue. To obtain relevant and material evidence needed to decide pending matters, a Civil Service adjudicating officer may:
 - a. Order classified employees and agencies or their representatives to appear, testify, and produce evidence, including books, records, papers, correspondence, or documents under their control.
 - b. Issue a subpoena to require a person who is not a classified employee to testify and produce evidence not under the control of a party, a classified employee, or an agency.
2. Timing. A party must request an order to appear or produce or a subpoena in writing at least 21 calendar days before the scheduled appearance or production date. The adjudicating officer may issue an order on a late request only if the requestor demonstrates good cause.
3. Service. The requesting party is responsible for serving an order or subpoena on the party to whom it is directed.
 - a. Order to appear or produce. If a party seeks to serve a classified employee, the appointing authority shall deliver the order to the employee on a party's request. Filing a proof of service is not required.
 - b. Subpoenas. A subpoena may be served anyplace in the state and must be served personally by an individual of suitable age and discretion who is not a party to the grievance appeal. Proof of service must be filed with the adjudicating officer.
4. Orders of appearance for classified employees.
 - a. Appearance. All classified employees shall appear as directed by an adjudicating officer. A classified employee who is a necessary witness may also voluntarily appear at a party's request. An appointing authority shall release necessary witnesses from regularly scheduled work without loss of regular pay or leave credits for necessary travel and attendance to attend, unless an emergency or critical safety concern prohibits releasing the employee. The employee is not entitled to overtime pay or travel expenses.

- b. Producing documents. A classified employee ordered to produce evidence under the person's control must comply as ordered. Any objection by the employee or employee's appointing authority must be filed in writing at least 7 calendar days before the production deadline. The hearing officer shall rule on objections before requiring the release of evidence.

3. Orders to agencies.

- a. Requirements. An adjudicating officer may issue an order to an agency directing it to produce its employees at a hearing to provide testimony or produce evidence under the control of the agency on request of a party. Before requesting an order, a party must seek the agency's voluntary agreement. A party must state in a request that it asked the appointing authority to voluntarily comply but was refused.
- b. Appearance. An agency shall comply with an order of appearance and provide witnesses or evidence as ordered, unless it files an objection at least 7 calendar days before the witness or evidence is to be produced. The hearing officer shall rule on the objections before requiring the release of evidence.

4. Subpoenas.

- a. Applications. An application for a subpoena is normally acted on by the hearing officer assigned to a matter, but in the assigned hearing officer's absence, another adjudicating officer may grant or deny a request. When available, the assigned hearing officer may reexamine the decision.
- b. Notice. A party requesting a subpoena shall provide every other party a copy of the subpoena within 24 hours after service.
- c. Costs. A party requesting a subpoena bears the cost of service and witness and mileage fees. Witness and mileage fees are the same as for witnesses in state circuit courts.
- d. Revocation. Any person served a subpoena who does not intend to comply shall, within 7 calendar days after service, petition the CSHO in writing to revoke the subpoena. The petitioner shall serve a copy on the requesting party. The CSHO must also promptly notice the requesting party of the petition. The hearing officer may revoke a subpoena if it requires evidence unrelated to the matter in issue, does not describe the requested evidence with sufficient particularity, or is invalid for any other sufficient reason.
- e. Compliance. If a person served with a subpoena fails to comply, the requesting party may petition the circuit court for an order requiring compliance. If a petition is filed, the hearing officer may adjourn proceedings or take other action deemed appropriate. If a hearing continues, the hearing officer may presume that evidence or testimony of a non-complying witness would be adverse to a party responsible for the failure or refusal to testify.

5. Sanctions. If a party ignores or willfully refuses to comply with an order to appear or produce a subpoena and the requesting party is materially disadvantaged, the adjudicating officer may impose appropriate sanctions, including dismissal of the noncompliant party's claims or defenses or drawing reasonable inferences against it related to its noncompliance.

6. Medical information. If a party's mental or physical condition is in controversy, the hearing officer may order prehearing discovery on the condition. Medical information subject to discovery includes medical records in the control of a party, physician, hospital, or other custodian, including the Employee Services Program. A hearing officer shall not issue any order on any assessment or counseling services by the Employee Services Program, unless the recipient has signed a written release authorizing the disclosure; employees of the Employee Services Program shall comply with any order of a hearing officer accompanied by a properly authorized release. A party may assert a valid privilege to prevent discovery of medical information about the party's mental or physical condition. A privilege not timely asserted is waived in the proceeding. A party who asserts that medical information is privileged or refuses to sign a release and prevents discovery cannot thereafter introduce any physical, documentary, or testimonial evidence on the party's medical or physical history or condition.

G. Hearing Procedures. If a grievance appeal is not decided on summary disposition, a hearing officer shall conduct a contested hearing under the following procedures:

1. Scheduling. The hearing officer shall fix the time and place of hearing. Grievance appeal hearings are to be concluded in one day, unless otherwise previously authorized by the hearing officer in writing. The parties shall avoid calling unnecessary witnesses, be sufficiently prepared, and stipulate to all uncontested facts of the case to the hearing officer before the hearing date. Hearing officers should encourage the parties to focus their presentations on relevant evidence.
2. Postponements. Except for a serious emergency, a request to postpone a scheduled hearing must be filed at least 14 calendar days in advance. A hearing officer may postpone at a party's request if there is sufficient justification.
3. Absences. A hearing may proceed in the absence of a party or representative who fails to appear and did not obtain a postponement.
 - a. If the party with the burden of proof fails to appear, the hearing officer may grant a default judgment to the responding party.
 - b. If the responding party fails to appear, the hearing officer shall make an award in favor of the party with the burden of proof if sufficient evidence to justify an award is introduced.
4. Prehearing exchange of documents and witness lists. Each party shall provide every other party and the hearing officer (1) a copy of each document that the party intends to introduce into evidence in the party's case-in-chief and (2) a written list of the names and titles of all witnesses the party intends to call to testify at the hearing. The copies and list must be (1) hand-delivered or emailed to all other parties at least 7 calendar days before the hearing or (2) sent by first-class U.S. mail or other courier at least 14 calendar days before the hearing. This section does not prohibit a party from introducing rebuttal evidence or witnesses.

- a. Previously provided documents. A party need not provide another copy of any document previously exchanged in the grievance process.
 - b. Security risk. If an appointing authority intends to call as a witness any prisoner or other person involuntarily committed, the witness may appear by telephone, unless the hearing is held where the witness is located.
5. Evidence. The hearing officer shall provide the parties a reasonable opportunity to present evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and present argument. The rules of evidence do not apply, but the hearing officer may refuse to admit repetitive, irrelevant, unreliable, or speculative evidence. Parties are limited in examining witnesses and presenting evidence to facts directly related to matters in dispute before the hearing officer. The hearing officer may swear witnesses, take testimony, receive evidence including opinion evidence, and take other actions necessary to fairly consider the parties' claims. The hearing officer may receive and consider evidence of witnesses by affidavit, giving it weight deemed proper after considering any objection to its admission.
6. Hearing record. The hearing record shall include the following:
- a. The grievance chain, with all written grievances and answers.
 - b. Documents and items admitted into evidence by the hearing officer.
 - c. Sworn testimony of witnesses.
 - d. Motions or other pleadings filed by the parties.
 - e. Written orders and decisions of the hearing officer.
7. Civil Service rules and regulations. The hearing officer may judicially note Civil Service rules, regulations, and decisions which need not be admitted into evidence unless there is a genuine dispute over their authenticity or actual text.
8. Agency work rules. Relevant agency work rules, policy directives, or orders at issue must be admitted into evidence.
- H. Standards and Burden of Proof. The burdens of proof in grievance appeals vary depending on the certified issues. The burdens are as follows:
1. Prohibited discrimination. If alleging discrimination, a grievant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the grievant suffered a tangible adverse employment action from discrimination prohibited by rule 1-8.
 2. Whistleblower. If alleging reprisal, a grievant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the grievant suffered a tangible adverse employment action from retaliation prohibited by rule 2-10.
 3. Discipline. If alleging that a dismissal, demotion, suspension, reduction in pay, or disciplinary lateral job change was without just cause, the burden of proof is:
 - a. Just cause. The appointing authority must first prove by a preponderance of the evidence that it had just cause to discipline the grievant.
 - b. Discipline. If the appointing authority proves that it had just cause to discipline, a hearing officer can only alter the discipline imposed if the grievant proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the particular discipline imposed (1) violated a Civil Service rule or regulation, (2) violated an agency work rule, or (3) was arbitrary and capricious.

4. Position abolition or creation. If challenging a position's creation or abolition, a grievant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that (1) the grievant suffered a tangible adverse employment action from the abolition or creation and (2) the position was abolished or created for reasons other than administrative efficiency.
5. Nondisciplinary lateral job change. If challenging a nondisciplinary lateral job change, the grievant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that (1) the grievant suffered substantial harm from the lateral job change and (2) the lateral job change was arbitrary and capricious.
6. Compensation. If alleging a denial of compensation, the grievant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the grievant was denied compensation to which the grievant was entitled under a Civil Service rule or regulation.
7. Service rating. If an unsatisfactory service rating is challenged as without just cause, the appointing authority must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that it had just cause to issue the unsatisfactory service rating.
8. Performance-pay evaluation. If alleging a less-than-satisfactory overall performance-pay evaluation was without just cause, the appointing authority must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that it had just cause to issue an overall less-than-satisfactory evaluation.
9. Rescinded probationary appointment. If the rescission of an appointment during a probationary period where the grievant was demoted to a classification level not less than that occupied when appointed is challenged:
 - a. The appointing authority must first articulate the reasons for rescinding the probationary appointment and demoting the grievant.
 - b. The grievant must then prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the rescission and demotion (1) were arbitrary and capricious or (2) violated rule 1-6, 1-8, or 2-10.
10. General grievance appeal. Unless otherwise specifically provided elsewhere in Civil Service rules or regulations, a grievant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence both of the following:
 - a. The grievant was substantially harmed by an appointing authority's action.
 - b. That action violated (1) Article 11, section 5, of the Michigan Constitution; (2) a Civil Service rule or regulation; (3) an agency work rule; or (4) an enforceable written grievance settlement between the grievant and appointing authority permitted by Civil Service rules or regulations.

I. Decisions.

1. Final decision. The hearing officer shall issue a written decision setting forth findings of fact, conclusions of law, and any remedial orders. A decision disposing of a grievance appeal is final, unless a party timely files a claim of appeal or an application for leave to appeal to the Civil Service Commission.

2. Remand decision. If the hearing officer remands the matter to the agency for further proceedings and does not retain jurisdiction, the decision is appealable as a final decision. If the hearing officer remands the matter to the agency and retains jurisdiction, the decision is appealable only as an interlocutory order.
3. Effective date. If a party files an appeal to the commission within 28 calendar days after a decision is issued, the decision is automatically stayed pending further order of the Employment Relations Board or commission. Otherwise, a grievance appeal decision becomes final and binding on the parties 29 calendar days after the adjudicating officer's decision is issued, unless the decision provides a later effective date.
4. Dismissal grievances. If an adjudicating officer's final decision orders an appointing authority to reinstate a grievant who had been dismissed for just cause, as a condition of further appeal the appointing authority must, temporarily at the class and level ordered for reinstatement, either (a) reinstate the grievant or (b) provide base pay and appropriate medical, dental, and vision group insurance. Temporary restoration does not reinstate the grievant to employment in the classified service. During any temporary restoration, the grievant is not entitled to any leave credit, retirement credit, longevity credit or payment, additional compensation, base-pay increases, severance pay, expense reimbursement, or other additional compensation or benefit.

J. Awards.

1. Prohibitions. A hearing officer cannot award attorney fees, witness fees, costs or other expenses, or interest on any monetary award.
2. Back pay and benefits. An appointing authority need not pay an award of back pay or benefits until a final, nonappealable decision of the commission or a court of competent jurisdiction affirms the award. If a reinstatement is affirmed after appeal, the appointing authority shall provide the rest of any back-pay award, offset by any base pay and benefits temporarily restored on appeal. An award of back pay and other benefits, even when not expressly stated in the decision, is subject to Civil Service rules and regulations and the following deductions, when appropriate:
 - a. Earnings in other employment or self-employment, except for previously-approved supplemental employment.
 - b. Benefits from employer contributory income protection insurance.
 - c. Benefits under workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, social security, and social welfare programs.
 - d. Paycheck withholding required under federal, state, and local law.
 - e. The employee's share of the cost of any group insurance plan.
 - f. Retirement benefits, including disability retirement benefits.
3. Expiring appointments. A grievant in a limited-term, Senior Executive Service, or Senior Executive Management Assistant Service appointment cannot be awarded relief for any period after the scheduled expiration of the term of appointment.

K. Arbitration Alternative.

1. Filing. A grievant may elect to have an arbitrator hear a grievance appeal rather than a hearing officer appointed by the CSHO. A grievant electing arbitration must timely file a grievance appeal with the CSHO after exhausting the agency-level steps in Standard 4.B. If the grievant's first filing with the CSHO does not explicitly elect the arbitration alternative, the grievant waives the option and the CSHO shall appoint a hearing officer.
2. Pre-arbitration conference. If the administrative officer does not summarily dismiss a grievance appeal, the administrative officer shall schedule a pre-arbitration conference of the parties within 28 calendar days after filing. The parties may explore conciliation, stipulate to issues and facts, and coordinate selection of the arbitrator. After the conference, the administrative officer shall certify the grievance appeal to arbitration.
3. Arbitrator selection. Within 14 calendar days after the administrative officer's certification, the grievant must file a request with the selecting agency or acknowledge acceptance of an agreed-upon arbitrator. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the arbitrator is selected and the hearing conducted under rules of the American Arbitration Association that are consistent with the Civil Service rules and regulations. The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service or Michigan Employment Relations Commission may be used by mutual agreement.
4. Procedures.
 - a. Cost. The grievant and appointing authority shall share arbitration costs equally.
 - b. Applicable law. An arbitrator shall decide a grievance appeal under the same substantive Civil Service rules and regulations that would apply if the grievance appeal were heard by a Civil Service hearing officer.
 - c. Record. The arbitration must be recorded so that a verbatim transcript of proceedings can be made, if needed. The arbitrator must retain all original documents, exhibits, pleadings, orders, and decisions.
 - d. Decision. The arbitrator shall issue a written decision setting forth findings of fact, conclusions of law, and any remedial orders. A remedial order cannot exceed the remedies available to a Civil Service hearing officer. The decision is final unless a party timely files a claim of appeal or application for leave to appeal to the Civil Service Commission. If a party appeals, the arbitrator shall provide all original documents, exhibits, pleadings, orders, and decisions to the Board on the appellant's request.

L. Authorized Representation.

1. Nonexclusively represented employees. A NERE who is a party in a Civil Service grievance proceeding may represent himself or herself or may designate as an authorized representative (1) an employee or agent of a limited-recognition organization, (2) an attorney, or (3) another classified NERE, subject to limits in the rules or regulations.
 - a. Administrative leave. An agency shall release a NERE who is a party in a Civil Service grievance proceeding from regularly scheduled work without loss of regular pay or leave credits for necessary travel to and attendance at grievance meetings or proceedings scheduled by the employer or Civil Service.

- (1) If a representative is an employee of the same agency, the appointing authority shall release the representative from regularly scheduled work without loss of normal pay or leave credits to attend grievance procedure meetings and proceedings scheduled by the employer or Civil Service.
- (2) If the representative is an employee of a different agency, the representative may attend grievance meetings or proceedings only if the representative's appointing authority approves annual or personal leave.

b. Limits. Administrative leave for investigations by a grievant or representative is not authorized. Overtime, consultation time over 15 minutes, and expenses, including travel expenses, are not authorized. To the extent practical, meetings should be scheduled during the grievant's workday. An appointing authority may limit the grant of administrative leave to three spokespeople for a group grievance.

2. Exclusively represented employees. If an exclusively represented employee files a grievance over a prohibited subject of bargaining under an exclusive Civil Service procedure, the employee may represent himself or herself or may designate as an authorized representative (1) an employee or agent of the employee's exclusive representative, (2) an attorney, or (3) another exclusively represented classified employee in the same bargaining unit, subject to limits in the rules or regulations.

M. Confidentiality. Except for the record and published Civil Service decisions, all files of the commission and its adjudicating officers relating to grievance appeals, including internal correspondence, research, staff analyses, and draft decisions, are confidential and not open to the public.

N. Other Administrative Proceedings. Procedures in this regulation for conducting hearings may be used in other Civil Service proceedings when a contested hearing is authorized to the extent that they are compatible with requirements for those proceedings. In Civil Service proceedings when a contested hearing is not authorized, the adjudicating officer may use these procedures to the extent that they are compatible with the subject matter and conduct of the investigation.
