Child and Adult Care Food Program
Fiscal Year (FY) 2022 Coordinated Application Workshops

Please register for this workshop at: www.Eventbrite.com

Michigan Department of Education (MDE) has developed a new user-friendly Child Nutrition Programs (CNP) - Coordinated Application. Nutrition participants will be able to apply for all nutrition programs using just one streamlined application.

The Coordinated Application Workshop will assist you with step-by-step instructions that will help you complete the transition from MEGS+ to the new NexSys system.

9:00am – 4:00pm
Coordinated Application Workshop

Lunch Break – on your own
(12:00 pm – 1:00 pm)

Limit two (2) individuals per organization

You will need to have the following with you:

- Completed linked MILogin for Third Party account
- Completed NexSys link to your MILogin for Third Party account
- A laptop or tablet with Excel software
- Flash drive
- Financial information to work on your budget – for example: food costs, payroll costs, income, etc.
- User ID and password for the MEGS+ system

Please save your login name and password information.
CACFP staff will not have access to any log in or password information.
Please print out your registration confirmation!
It is recommended that you bring your ticket.

Persons with disabilities needing reasonable accommodations for effective participation in the workshop should contact the Child and Adult Care Food Program office at 517-241-5353. Requests for accommodations should be made at least two weeks prior to the training sessions.

CACFP reserves the right to cancel trainings due to low participation.
(CACFP Instructors start the training at 9:00AM.)
