NEW! Family Style Meal Service With Children in the Child and Adult Care Food Program

United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Team Nutrition (TN) is pleased to announce new Family Style Meal Service With Children in the Child and Adult Care Food Program resources. These resources include:

- An Operator Booklet: includes information on how to help prepare and support children, train staff, and meet CACFP meal pattern requirements to successfully serve meals “family style” in the CACFP.
- Classroom Posters: discussion tools teachers can use in their classrooms to introduce the steps of family style meal service, rules for family style meals, and sample scripts for conversations at mealtime with children.
- Training Slides: ready-to-go presentation slides to help train staff on family style meal service in the CACFP.
- Photographs: original photographs depicting family style meal service in child care and afterschool settings to use in training materials.
- Social media graphics: three animated graphics to help spread the word about this new resource and the benefits of family style meal service.

All materials are free and available online at www.fns.usda.gov/tn/cacfp/family-style-meals. Check out the parent newsletter, “Serving Meals ‘Family Style’” at www.fns.usda.gov/tn/nibbles.

Family Day Care Home Sponsor Expansion Opportunities in CACFP!

Michigan Department of Education (MDE) CACFP is looking for eligible organizations to provide oversight and guidance to family day care home providers by becoming a Family Day Care Home (FDCH) Sponsor. All family or group day care homes must come into the program under a sponsoring organization.

Financial assistance is available to a sponsoring organization for its administrative expenses associated with developing or expanding a food service program in family day care homes and initiating successful program operations.

Contact the CACFP office at 517-241-5353 or MDE-CACFP@michigan.gov with any questions.
