Update on Benchmark Assessment Funding Grant

Awards for the Section 104h Benchmark Assessment Funding Grants have been determined. Section 104h of PA 144 of 2022 (<http://legislature.mi.gov/doc.aspx?mcl-388-1704h>) provides payments to districts equal to $12.50 per membership pupil in grades K to 8 in the district. Eligibility for this funding is based on administration and reporting of NWEA MAP, i-Ready, or Star benchmark assessments in reading and mathematics. Award letters and Grant Award Notices will be sent to district superintendents in the near future. Grant awards are loaded into the State Aid Management System (SAMS) for the regularly scheduled February state aid payment.

- If you have a funding question, please contact Carol Skillings (SkillingsC@michigan.gov) in the Office of Educational Assessment and Accountability.
- For questions about reporting requirements, please contact Kate Cermak (CermakK@michigan.gov).
- If you need information about your reporting and funding application, please contact MDE-GEMS@michigan.gov.

Spring 2024 Testing Schedule is Now Available

The Spring 2024 testing schedule for state summative assessments is now available on the Office of Educational Assessment and Accountability's OEAA Calendar page (www.michigan.gov/mde-assessmentcalendar).

This is a high-level overview of the Spring 2024 testing dates and windows. Additional details will be provided later this year when the 2023-24 Guide to State Assessments is published in the fall.

The high-level testing schedules for Spring 2025 and Spring 2026 will be added later this spring as soon as proposed dates are confirmed by MDE's testing partners.

WIDA Alternate ACCESS for ELLs Field Test: Materials and Testing Reminders

Districts that have students taking the regularly scheduled WIDA Alternate ACCESS for ELLs assessment should have received WIDA Alternate ACCESS for ELLs Field Test materials on Tuesday, February 7.

Field test material quantities were based on numbers of students who took the 2022 Alternate ACCESS for ELLs assessment. Some schools may find that they no longer have students taking the Alternate ACCESS in buildings where materials were shipped. Those materials should be returned to DRC per the included return instructions or may be used in other buildings across the district.

The field test assessment, which is different from the regularly scheduled WIDA Alternate ACCESS for ELLs assessment, is a required step in the process of redesigning the assessment. This redesign work is necessary for several reasons.

These are:

- to expand the assessment to align more fully to the WIDA standards
- to include kindergarten students in the range of grade levels assessed by the Alternate ACCESS for ELLs, as required by the federal Every Student Succeeds Act (The current version of the Alternate ACCESS for ELLs is only administered to students in grades 1-12.)
- to help create a brand-new alternate screener for a more appropriate identification process for potential English learners who may also have significant cognitive disabilities

Students who will participate in the field test will first be required to take their regularly scheduled WIDA Alternate ACCESS for ELLs assessment; they may then complete the field test after they complete the regular test.

The field test window opens on Tuesday, February 14, 2023, and closes on Friday, April 7, 2023. This window overlaps with the regular WIDA ACCESS and WIDA Alternate ACCESS for ELLs testing window, which opened on Monday, February 6, 2023, and close on Friday, March 24, 2023. The OEAA urges districts to provide as much time as possible between assessments to reduce the effects of testing fatigue among students.

Additional information about the field test can be found in the Information on 2022-23 Alternate ACCESS for ELLs Field Test (<https://www.michigan.gov/mde/-/media/Project/Websites/mde/OEAA/WIDA-Assessments/WIDA-Alternate-ACCESS-Field-Test-Information.pdf>) document. If educators need additional materials for the Field Test, they can be ordered using this form (https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScM0VVJa-VkEvhVsoOEw9448AY2UwSFRxRxuUPS3W2ro__WXg/viewform).

What Are Validity and Reliability in Student Assessment?

Defining Validity and Reliability

Assessment validity and reliability are important concepts that ensure assessment results provide appropriate and accurate information.

“Validity” refers to the degree to which an assessment measures what it is intended to measure and provides information that is appropriate for the intended purpose. For example, a math test that relies heavily on reading comprehension may not be a valid measurement of a student’s mathematical understanding.

“Reliability” refers to consistency of test results. Reliable tests produce consistent results when taken multiple times across multiple administrations.

Assessment-literate individuals must have a deep understanding of both concepts.

Determining Validity

A test is valid (or invalid) only for a stated purpose. The validity of a test cannot be assessed unless the purpose of that test is made clear. Additionally, a test may be valid for one purpose but invalid for another.

Interpretation of test results is valid when the data interpretation is aligned to the test’s intended purpose. For example, a test might provide valid estimates of student achievement of content, but the interpretation of the results might not be valid for judging the quality of a school. A validity argument must be made for each stated purpose or use of a test, and supportive evidence must be collected to validate the intended use of the assessment.

To determine a validity argument for the purpose of a test, answering these questions will serve to provide supporting evidence:

1. Does the assessment appropriately sample the content?
2. Does the assessment measure what it is intended to measure?
3. Does the assessment accurately reflect the students’ knowledge about the content being measured?
4. Can the results be accurately interpreted and used in a way that is appropriate and aligned to the purpose of the assessment?

Use these questions to critically evaluate the validity of your assessment to ensure the results will provide accurate, actionable data.

Determining Reliability

A test can be called reliable when the test results are consistent across multiple administrations; this is determined by the strength of the evidence of this consistency. The most common types of test reliability evidence are:

- test-retest reliability: the degree to which the same test administered at different times to the same students produces similar results
- internal consistency reliability evidence: the degree to which items on a test measure similar skills and knowledge
- inter-rater reliability: the degree to which scores from different raters on the same student performance measure agree

Formative

Interim

Summative

Focus on Assessment Literacy

Finally, all validity and reliability evidence should be evaluated with the appropriate purpose and use of a test in mind and must be considered for both individuals and groups of test-takers.

For more information on validity and reliability as they pertain to assessment, see the Resources and Put Into Practice sections below.

This question about test reliability is answered in this ALN Learning Moment video.

Putting Into Practice

1. Consider an assessment you use in your classroom or that your school uses as a measure of student achievement. After applying the questions in the article to the assessment, what evidence do you have that validates the intended purpose and use of the assessment?
2. Then, based on the types of evidence of reliability listed in the article, what evidence do you have that this assessment is reliable? What factors may impact the reliability of your assessment?

WHAT'S NEW

Pre-ID in the OEAA Secure Site

All students taking the SAT with Essay, PSAT 10, and PSAT 8/9 must be pre-identified in the Office of Educational Assessment and Accountability (OEAA) Secure Site (www.michigan.gov/oeaa-secure) by 5:00 p.m. on February 15, 2023. The Pre-ID process creates the Initial Material Order for pre-printed ID labels and standard time test materials.

Accommodation Request Deadline is February 21

The deadline to request College Board accommodations, state allowed accommodations, and English learner (EL) extended time support in the College Board SSD Online system is February 21, 2023. Accommodated testing materials will be sent to schools based on the students in the pending and approved status in SSD Online as of February 21. Accommodated materials can only be used if the student has an approval in SSD Online.

English Learner (EL) Supports

There are three EL supports available to eligible students for the Michigan-provided assessments:

1. time and one-half (+50% extended time),
2. translated test directions, and
3. use of a word-to-word bilingual dictionary.

The use of EL supports may not be appropriate for all EL students. To determine if providing EL supports is appropriate, refer to the Supports & Accommodations Guidance Document (https://www.michigan.gov/mde/-/media/Project/Websites/mde/OEAA/Accommodations-and-Supports/Michigan_Accommodations_Manualfinal.pdf).

The use of translated test directions and bilingual dictionaries does not require College Board approval. However, time and one-half must be requested in SSD Online by February 21. The time and one-half request requires no documentation and will be automatically approved.

The list of approved word-to-word bilingual dictionaries (https://satsuite.collegeboard.org/media/pdf/sat-suite-college-board-approved-dictionaries.pdf) is now available.

Translated test directions will be available in PDF format for schools to download and print for test day. Printed translated test directions will not be shipped to schools. These PDFs are expected to be available for download by February 13, 2023 on the Michigan Merit Examination web page (www.michigan.gov/mme) and the PSAT web page (www.michigan.gov/psat).

Note: The translated test directions are not Michigan-specific; however, they will provide all relevant directions for students. The provided directions use only the standard timing script, so test coordinators and proctors are to make sure students who are using the time and one-half (+50%) support pay attention to the timing instructions provided verbally and in writing on the board.

ACT WorkKeys Test Materials Shipments

The window to submit student data for pre-identification barcode labels and to order ACT WorkKeys standard-time and accommodations materials is open through February 15, 2023, 5:00 p.m., using the OEAA Secure Site (www.michigan.gov/oeaa-secure).

Instructions for these activities can be found at the Secure Site Training web page (www.michigan.gov/securetraining) under the Pre-Identification of Students and the Material Ordering sections.

The quantities of standard time ACT WorkKeys materials your school will receive is based on your school's pre-ID student counts pulled from the OEAA Secure Site as of 5:00 p.m. on February 15, 2023, minus the accommodations counts entered on the Initial Material Order page.

Secure and non-secure standard time and accommodations materials will be shipped for delivery in either the week of March 20, 2023, or the week of March 27, 2023, as selected by the school on the Manage Participation screen in PearsonAccess^{next}. The standard time and accommodations materials will be shipped in separate sets of boxes and may be delivered on different days within the selected delivery week.

Test materials will be shipped to the WorkKeys Coordinator's mailing address (not the building address) that is listed in Educational Entity Master \(EEM\) (www.michigan.gov/eem) as of February 15, 2023.

FedEx tracking information will be available beginning March 17, 2023, on the Material Order Reports page on the OEAA Secure Site (www.michigan.gov/oeaa-secure). You can access the Material Order Summary Report under the Assessment Registration menu and the sub-menu of Material Orders.

If you do not receive your test materials by April 3, 2023, call ACT at 800-553-6244, ext. 2800 for resolution.

Within 24 hours of receiving the shipment(s), compare the packing list to the materials received, using the guidelines found in the ACT Test Coordinator Information Manual (<https://www.act.org/content/dam/act/secured/documents/pdfs/state-district-test-coordinator-paper-test.pdf>). This manual is posted on the ACT state testing website (<http://www.act.org/stateanddistrict/michigan>) on the WorkKeys on Paper page in the Administration stage.

Call Center: 877-560-8378 (select appropriate option) for assistance with assessment or accountability issues

Ordering Additional ACT WorkKeys Test Materials

If after checking in your test materials, the number of students scheduled to test April 13-26, 2023, exceeds the number of test materials received, order additional ACT WorkKeys materials through the OEAA Secure Site (www.michigan.gov/oeaa-secure), from March 21 through April 6, 2023, at 5:00 p.m. Do not submit additional materials orders in PearsonAccess^{next}.

Instructions for the Additional Material Order function can be found on the Secure Site Training web page (www.michigan.gov/securesitetraining).

If a new student arrives in your school after February 15, pre-ID their student data in the OEAA Secure Site and print a barcode label locally, using the blank page of labels that ACT will include with your test materials, or a white label you have purchased elsewhere.

Student Preparation – Go for Platinum!

Encourage students to understand the types of questions they will see on the WorkKeys test, since these differ from other types of exams. Students and teachers can access free practice questions (<https://www.act.org/content/act/en/products-and-services/workkeys-for-job-seekers/preparation.html>) from all three tests, ranging from easier content (Level 3) to the most difficult (Level 7). Teachers and students may use these practice questions as Questions of the Day or as warm-up activities in the weeks leading up to test day.

Students can also create a user account and take free full-length online practice tests (<https://testregistration.org/rsp/Login.do?event=go&realm=20770563>). This allows students to pace themselves in real-time test scenarios and receive scores indicating how they may perform on the WorkKeys tests.
