WELCOME!

Welcome to the first edition of Continuous Communication, your source for information and updates about the Michigan Integrated Continuous Improvement Process (MICIP).

The Michigan Integrated Continuous Improvement Process (MICIP) is a pathway for districts to improve student outcomes by assessing whole child needs to develop plans and coordinate funds. This streamlined process and software application integrate resources and tools that are easy to use as districts focus on identifying student needs, developing plans and coordinating funds.

You are receiving this first edition and your subscription to Continuous Communication has been pre-loaded because we know you are committed to continuous improvement for Michigan schools. Continuous improvement will be especially important during this unprecedented time.

Please feel free to pass Continuous Communication along to anyone who you feel would like to receive information and updates about MICIP. To subscribe or unsubscribe, please click on this link.

WHERE DO I FIND OUT MORE ABOUT MICIP?

The MICIP website (michigan.gov/mde-micip) is the official source for MICIP information. Here you will find the official MICIP video, professional learning resources, and other resources to answer your questions.

A key resource on the MICIP website is the MICIP Readiness Checklist. This document has been prepared to help district leaders prepare themselves and their districts for the transition to continuous improvement using MICIP.
