

Student Loan Repayment Program Eligibility Checklist

Last Updated 4/11/25

Does the individual work 32 hours or more per week for their employer?

Does the individual work directly with pre-K to grade 12 students for at least 50% of their working time?

Best Practice: First review the definition found in MCL 388.1627k, Section \(14\)\(b\)\(ii\). It is the employer's responsibility to determine if the participant works directly with students for at least 50% of their working time.

Does the individual currently make payments toward their student loans?

Does the individual make these payments under a federal public service loan forgiveness program?

Is the individual enrolled in an income-driven repayment plan, if their loan type allows for this type of plan?

Best Practice: Ensure the participant understands the eligible loan options available on the Student Loan Repayment Program website. Keep the Federal Student Aid website handy for additional details and information on income-driven repayment plans.
