Districts can claim 100 percent of the added cost for education programs under Section 24 of the State School Aid Act. Added cost is computed by deducting all other state revenue received under the State School Aid Act, including the foundation allowance, Section 51a, Section 51a(3), Section 53a, Section 22b, Section 51e, and Section 51c funds from the total approved expenditures.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION (IF APPLICABLE):

1. For each diagnostic personnel (e.g. a teacher consultant for students with disabilities, school psychologist, school social worker, or school counselor) reported on the final costs report, district shall include documentation demonstrating total new pupils during the detention/placement period. For each school social worker reported on the final costs report, district shall also include documentation demonstrating total new pupils referred to special education suspected of being emotionally impaired.
2. For each split funded special education ancillary and related services personnel reported on the final costs report, district shall include documentation demonstrating the actual time the staff worked in the facility to meet the requirements for services established in each pupil's Individualized Education Program (IEP).
