

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY SUPPLEMENTAL MASS VIOLENCE ASSISTANCE

The MDHHS Division of Victim Services is in the process of securing federal funding resources that may be available to assist with counseling, emergency travel, lost wages, transportation, and other expenses for eligible students and individuals impacted by the tragedy at Michigan State University. This may include individuals who were injured, witnesses, individuals who were in direct proximity to the crime, and first responders who responded to the incident. This may also include indirect victims, who are generally family (or those bound by a familial-type relationship) of direct victims and law enforcement personnel, first responders, and/or others who interacted in a meaningful way with the direct victims.

HOW DO I APPLY?

If you or someone you know has questions about eligibility for financial assistance, please complete the inquiry form on our website or email us directly and someone from our office will contact you with updates about application information.

Michigan.gov/MSUResponse or by email at MDHHS-MSU-Response@michigan.gov