

Natasha Bagdasarian MD, MPH, FIDSA, FACP

- Dr. Natasha Bagdasarian is the Chief Medical Executive for the State of Michigan.
- She is board certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine in Internal Medicine and Infectious Diseases, and she is a Fellow of the Infectious Diseases Society of America and the American College of Physicians.
- Dr. Bagdasarian completed medical school at Wayne State University; internal medicine residency and infectious diseases fellowship at the University of Michigan; and she received a Master of Public Health (MPH) degree, from the University of Michigan School of Public Health. She serves as adjunct faculty at the University of Michigan School of Public Health.
- Dr Bagdasarian is a member of Governor Gretchen Whitmer's Cabinet. She chairs Michigan's Public Health Advisory Council, Childhood Lead Elimination Commission and Opioid Task Force. She was also a member of Michigan's Coronavirus Task Force on Racial Disparities.