

Distribution: School Based Services 04-07

Issued: December 1, 2004

Subject: Code Revisions

Effective: January 1, 2005

Programs Affected: Medicaid School Based Services (SBS) Fee-for-Service Program

PURPOSE

This bulletin is to notify you of the HCPCS (Healthcare Common Procedure Coding System) changes for 2005. These changes will be implemented by the Michigan Department of Community Health (MDCH) for dates of services on or after January 1, 2005.

The procedure codes listed below have been changed from a per hour procedure code to an encounter based procedure code. The allowable quantity per day for this code consequently will also change to "1" effective January 1, 2005.

Information regarding the 2005 fees and coverage parameters for all School Based Services procedure codes will be posted on the MDCH website. The website address is www.michigan.gov/mdch, click on <Providers>, <Information for Medicaid Providers>, <Provider Specific Information>.

2005 HCPCS Procedure Code Changes Effective 1/1/2005

For the following codes, the "per hour" was removed from the code definition.

96111	Developmental testing; extended (includes assessment of motor, language, social, adaptive and/or cognitive functioning by standardized developmental instruments) with interpretation and report.
96111 TM	Developmental testing; extended (includes assessment of motor, language, social, adaptive and/or cognitive functioning by standardized developmental instruments) with interpretation and report.
96111 HT	Developmental testing; extended (includes assessment of motor, language, social, adaptive and/or cognitive functioning by standardized developmental instruments) with interpretation and report.

MANUAL MAINTENANCE

The changes noted above will be incorporated into the January 1, 2005 CD and electronic on-line versions of the Michigan Medicaid Provider Manual. This bulletin may be discarded after review.
