IV. OROSC Update – Angela Smith-Butterwick and OROSC Staff

A. Opioid Morbidity and Mortality Data – Su Min Oh

Dr. Oh stated the draft report that she shared at the January meeting has been finalized and approved; the report is available on OROSC’s website. An application has been submitted to Council of State and Territorial Epidemiologists (CSTE) for funding a short-term project. The project will target and collect 2016 data for 18 substance use and mental health indicators. The project will start the week of March 24th and will be complete by the end of June.

B. Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome (NAS) Initiatives – Angela Smith-Butterwick

Ms. Smith-Butterwick reported the tribal project is going really well. They have some staff in place to work with the tribes on NAS. They developed a brochure to hand out to pregnant mothers. She met with Hurley Hospital on March 18th to potentially start a rooming-in project. OROSC is trying to figure out the funding. They are hoping Hurley Hospital will dedicate four rooms for the project, so mothers with infants in the neonatal intensive care unit can stay in the hospital with them during the withdrawal period. This will only be available for mothers in treatment. The estimated length of stay for infants is twelve days. A couple other hospitals are being looked at for this project, including Covenant in Saginaw.
