Seven Simple Strategies for Sibling Support

Please join us with Emily Holl, the Director of The Sibling Support Project at Kindering, as she discusses how siblings of children with disabilities play important roles in their families, and often experience similar concerns and opportunities as parents. This interactive session will present some common issues that siblings experience and share seven simple ways that parents and providers can help minimize sibling concerns and maximize opportunities to build close bonds with siblings.

Date – Wednesday, March 9th at 4pm EST.
