

How To Find Resources

The Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) administers dozens of programs to improve the health, safety and prosperity of state residents. MDHHS works hand-in-hand with hundreds of partners at the local and regional levels to provide these needed services. Below are among the most common MDHHS services utilized.

Need help making ends meet?

MDHHS provides a variety of direct aid to Michigan families, including food assistance, Medicaid, Healthy Michigan Plan, emergency cash aid, disability assistance, childcare support for working families, and help for mothers and their young children. Apply at Michigan.gov/MIBridges.

Concerned a child is in danger?

Children's Protective Services works to prevent child abuse and neglect and strengthen families. If you know of a child who is neglected or abused, call 855-444-3911.

Want to foster or adopt a child?

There are thousands of Michigan children who need foster care or a "forever home." Learn about becoming a foster parent (Michigan.gov/FosterCare) or contact the Michigan Adoption Resource Exchange (MARE.org) to begin the process to adopt a child.

Need a vaccine?

Find information on all your vaccination needs at Michigan.gov/Vaccines, including flu shots. You can make sure your kids are up to date on vaccinations by visiting the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP.org).

Need information about your child support case?

You can access case information at MiChildSupport at MiCase.state.mi.us.

Worried about environmental hazards in your home?

Division of Environmental Health employees are on hand to answer questions. The MDHHS Drinking Water Hotline is 844-934-1315, the MI Toxic Hotline is 1-800-MI-TOXIC (1-800-648-6942), and the Lead Hotline is 866-691-5323.

Are you the victim of a crime?

The Division of Victim Services provides help including crime victim compensation, a sexual assault hotline to offer support and access to updated information about an offender's status. Learn more at Michigan.gov/CrimeVictims.

Are you an older person who needs help with meals or other services?

The Bureau of Aging, Community Living and Supports website, Michigan.gov/Aging, provides tools to help you find the local services you need.

Need a birth, death or marriage record?

Connect with the Division for Vital Records and Health Statistics at Michigan.gov/VitalRecords.

Know of someone in the mental health system being mistreated?

The MDHHS Office of Recipient Rights ensures that everyone who receives public mental health services is treated fairly. You can report any abuse or exploitation of a recipient at 1-800-854-9090.

Are you or someone you know in crisis?

The Michigan Crisis and Access Line (MiCAL) is the statewide crisis line. MiCAL is a 988 call center and can connect a person in crisis any time day or night to compassionate care and support for any mental health or substance use-related distress. You can call or text 988 at any time.

Aware of Bridge Card fraud?

The MDHHS Office of Inspector General investigates any misuse of MDHHS benefits or payments to providers. If you know of such activity, please report it at Michigan.gov/Fraud.
