  - Ashley Freeman: Frontline Strong Presentation
    - Ashley and Scott gave a Frontline Strong Presentation. The group discussed size of the organization and shared resources (some counties merge together to form teams). The information presented today will be sent to the group. Frontline Strong also has planned presentations at conferences throughout the state. Jim Etzin suggested creating advocates at agency levels or department levels. Scott Taylor advised they are actively hiring to obtain two peers per zone. Kallie will send FLS contact, and any other information provided to the subcommittee.
    - Kolby asked if we are able to recommend best practice through the update? The week after EMSCC, we can add to the update as a position statement.

- The department can add agency and resources tab to the website and add these resources to that tab.
- The subcommittee will suggest what they would like to see in the resources tab to the April meeting for the department to build on the website. This will be on the agenda for April.
