

STATE OF MICHIGAN
MICHIGAN GAMING CONTROL BOARD
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

In the matter of:

Churchill Downs Technology Initiatives Company

Application for Third-party Facilitator License

ORDER GRANTING CONDITIONAL TEMPORARY
THIRD-PARTY FACILITATOR LICENSE

On September 3, 2020, Churchill Downs Technology Initiatives Company was granted a conditional temporary third-party license which expires 30 days from issuance. As necessary, a second extension is now ordered to extend the conditional license by 60 days from October 3, 2020.

As permitted by 8(1)(d)(vi)(A) of the Horse Racing Law of 1995 (Act), MCL 431.308(1)(d)(A), the temporary third-party facilitator license is extended for an additional 60 days. Churchill Downs must still comply with the Act, the Administrative Rules, and the Order Establishing Terms, Conditions, and Fees for Third Party Facilitators issued on September 3, 2020. The Executive Director may issue sanctions including, but not limited to, revocation or suspension of a license, exclusion from racetrack grounds, or a fine.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

/s/

Richard S. Kalm, Executive Director
Michigan Gaming Control Board

October 3, 2020

Date