PUBLIC COMMENT

The public has the right to address the Commission and the Commission welcomes the public's comments. The public may do so in two different ways: (1) written comments which will be entered into the permanent public record for the meeting; and (2) speaking live to the Commission remotely. Further instruction on each method is listed below.

- 1) Written public comment to the Commission may be submitted via the Commission's public comment portal available at Michigan-Mapping.org
- 2) Requests to speak remotely may be made live during the Zoom meeting by raising your virtual hand. Attendees will be invited to speak and unmuted on a first-come, first-served basis (based on order of hand raising). Each person who chooses to provide live or remote public comment will have up to 90 seconds to address the Commission.
