PUBLIC COMMENT

The public has the right to address the Commission and the Commission welcomes the public's comments. The public may do so in two different ways: (1) written comments which will be entered into the permanent public record for the meeting; and (2) speaking live to the Commission remotely. Further instruction on each method are listed below.

Written public comment and requests to speak live during the remote meeting's public comment agenda item may be submitted via the Public Comment Sign-Up Form at <https://forms.office.com/g/JymDHUgHd9>.

Those who wish to address the Commission remotely will be invited to speak on a first-come, first-served basis, based on order of email submission containing a request to speak. That will be followed by a first-come, first served basis of those who raise their virtual hand on Zoom to indicate they would like to address the Commission. Individuals are encouraged to write down their public comment, to refresh their recollection when they are called upon. Individuals who signed up to provide virtual or remote public comment, up to one hour prior to the above listed meeting start time, can expect to receive information about how to log-on to the webinar via email shortly before the meeting start time.

Each person who chooses to provide live or remote public comment will have up to 90 seconds to address the Commission.

ACCESSIBILITY

Closed caption and ASL services will be provided for effective participation in this meeting. People in need of other translation services or those with disabilities needing other specific accommodations should email ReinhardtS@Michigan.gov or contact Sarah Reinhardt at (517) 285-0043.

MEDIA INQUIRIES

Members of the media with questions should contact Edward Woods III, Executive Director for the Commission, at WoodsE3@Michigan.gov or (517) 331-6309.
