PUBLIC COMMENT PARTICIPATION

The public may participate in public comment during the meeting in three different ways:

- 1) Written public comment to the Commission may be submitted via the Commission's public comment portal available at Michigan-Mapping.org.
- 2) Requests to speak live to the Commission at the meeting venue will be determined on a first-come, first-served basis.
 - Sign up for in-person public comment will close when the public comment portion of the agenda ends during the meeting. A copy of the meeting agenda will be made available at Michigan.gov/MICRC.
 - Each individual who chooses to provide live public comment will have up to three minutes to address the Commission in the first round of public comment, and an additional two minutes in the second round of public comment. Individuals may request a second round of public comment during the public hearing.
- 3) Requests to speak remotely via Zoom must be submitted in advance of the meeting via online signup form available at forms.office.com/g/JymDHUgHd9. Individuals who wish to address the Commission remotely will be invited to speak on a first-come, first-served basis (based on the sign-up form).
 - Sign-up for virtual or remote public comment will close one hour prior to the meeting start time, and all remote public comment will occur after in-person public comment at the meeting venue has concluded.
 - Individuals signing up to speak remotely will receive an email within one hour of the meeting start time containing instructions on how to participate.
 - Each individual who chooses to provide live public comment will have up to three minutes to address the Commission, and an additional two minutes in the second round of public comment. Individuals may request a second round of public comment when signing up using the online signup form.
