

JULIANNE PASTULA
GENERAL COUNSEL

Julianne Pastula serves as General Counsel to the Michigan Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission (MICRC).

In her role as primary legal advisor, Ms. Pastula assists the MICRC in fulfilling their constitutional obligations as they embark on the inaugural redistricting process utilizing new criteria and procedures. Her advice and guidance are focused on executing a robust, independent, fair, citizen-led, and transparent redistricting process.

Previously, Ms. Pastula worked for the City of Detroit as a Public Policy Analyst for the Research and Analysis Division of City Council then as a Senior Assistant Corporation Counsel in the Municipal Section of the Law Department. She also served as General Counsel to the Board of Ethics and was formerly the Law Department's Liaison to the Detroit City Council.

Ms. Pastula earned her J.D. from the University of Detroit Mercy and has been recognized for both her professional work and her pro bono service.
