PUBLIC COMMENT

The public has the right to address the Commission and the Commission welcomes the public's comments. The public may do so in two different ways: (1) written comments which will be entered into the permanent public record for the meeting; and (2) speaking live to the Commission remotely. Further instruction on each method are listed below.

Requests to speak remotely must be submitted via sign-up form available at surveymonkey.com/r/9HMLPFL . Individuals who wish to address the Commission remotely will be invited to speak on a first-come, first-served basis (based on the sign-up form). These individuals can expect to receive information about how to log-on to the webinar via the email they provide in the sign-up form. Sign-up for virtual or remote public comment will close at 9:00AM the day of the meeting.

Each person who chooses to provide live or remote public comment will have up to two (2) minutes to address the Commission.
