

Resolution 2021.04.11

Michigan Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission (MICRC)

Resolution to Add Language to the Request for Relief in the Petition to the Michigan Supreme Court

Presented: April 15, 2021

RESOLVED, that due to the anticipated release and use of legacy format summary redistricting data files, in addition to the previously authorized request for 72 days from census data released on September 30 and the accommodation for “additional federal delay” for census data released a corresponding number of days after September 30, the MICRC hereby adopts the following relief for inclusion into the petition to the Michigan Supreme Court: that the MICRC will use its best efforts to release the preliminary and final plans a corresponding number of days from the date the census data is received in advance of September 30.
