MICHIGAN CHILD CARE BACKGROUND CHECK CONSENT AND DISCLOSURE

License Exempt-Unrelated Providers

The Child Care Background Check Program is specifically for the comprehensive background check of licensed and license exempt child care providers in the state of Michigan. License Exempt - Unrelated Providers must have a comprehensive background check, including fingerprints:

Refusal to submit to this comprehensive background check will result in being found ineligible to be a license exempt – unrelated provider or hold any of the above roles in a licensed facility within the State of Michigan. Falsifying, omitting, or failing to provide complete information in connection with a comprehensive background check will also result in the individual being found ineligible.

Part 1 – Consent

To be considered for enrollment in the Child Development and Care (CDC) program:

- a. I consent to and give permission to MiLEAP CDC Office through Child Care Background Check (CCBC), to conduct a background check that includes:
 - 1) A review of the licensing database of people with previous disciplinary action in a child care center, group child care home, family child care home, or an adult foster care facility.
 - 2) A search through the national and state sex offender registries.
 - 3) A search through all state criminal registries for any states where I've lived in the past five years.
 - 4) A request that the Michigan State Police (MSP) perform a criminal history check.
 - 5) A search of the child abuse and neglect registry for Michigan and any states where I've lived for the past five years.
- b. I understand that refusing the background check or knowingly providing false information in connection with a background check will result in my being found not eligible.
- c. I understand that MiLEAP CDC Office will make the final decision as to whether I am enrolled as a license exempt provider. I also understand that MiLEAP may end the background check or decide to not allow me to enroll as a license exempt provider at any stage in the process.
- d. I agree to provide all the information necessary to conduct a background check.

Privacy Act Statement:

Authority: Acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal regulations. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint- based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine Uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting, licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Part 2-Disclosure Statements (applicant disclosure)

Part 4- Individual Rights

- a. I understand that upon my written request, the department will provide a copy of any disqualifying record information found on any of the relevant registries or databases.
- b. I understand that if I believe the results of any disqualifying information found on any relevant registry is inaccurate, it is my responsibility to contact the agency that maintains the registry to correct the registry information.
- c. I understand that if I believe the results of the criminal history fingerprint record are inaccurate, or if the conviction contained in the criminal history record is one that may be expunged or set aside, I may file a redetermination request with the Department of Lifelong Education, Advancement, and Potential.
- d. As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below. All notices must be provided to you in writing. These obligations are pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.) Section 552a, and Title 28 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), 50.12, among other authorities.
 - You must be provided an adequate written FBI Privacy Act Statement (dated 2013 or later) when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement must explain the authority for collecting your fingerprints and associated information and whether your fingerprints and associated information will be searched, shared, or retained.
 - You must be advised in writing of the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your FBI criminal history record as set forth at 28 CFR 16.34.
 - You must be provided the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in your FBI criminal history record (if you have such a record).
 - If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the FBI criminal history record.
 - If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks> and <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>.
 - If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI by submitting a request via <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)
 - You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.
