

Police Officer's and Fire Fighter's Survivor Tuition Grant Fact Sheet for Academic Year 2023-24

Description

The Police Officer's and Fire Fighter's Survivor Tuition Grant (STG) provides for the waiver of tuition at a Michigan community college or public university for children and surviving spouses of Michigan police officers and fire fighters killed in the line of duty. The program is intended to provide an educational benefit to the spouse and children of police officers and fire fighters who made the ultimate sacrifice for their communities and the citizens of Michigan.

Application

Students must complete an initial application. To complete an initial application or check the status, the student can log into the MiSSG Student Portal at michigan.gov/misssg. For renewal, students must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Eligibility

To be eligible for an award, a student must:

- Complete the initial STG application (one time only).
 - Application Deadline: July 15, 2024
- File a current-year Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) (required annually).
- Be the spouse or child (natural or adopted), of a deceased Michigan police officer or fire fighter who was killed in the line of duty.
- A child must have been younger than age 21 at the time of the police officer's or fire fighter's death and apply for the Survivor Tuition Grant before age 26.
- Be certified by the financial aid officer of the participating institution that the STG waiver is needed to meet tuition expenses.
- Be enrolled in at least six credit hours at a participating institution.
 - ◆ All participating institutions are listed on the last page of this Fact Sheet.
- Be a Michigan resident for one year prior to program application.
 - ◆ If a dependent student, parent must also be a Michigan resident.
- Be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident, or approved refugee.
- Be an undergraduate student.
- Not have a bachelor's degree.
- Not be in default on a Federal student loan.
- Meet institution's Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy.

Program Limits

Tuition may only be waived for courses applicable toward the certificate or degree in which the applicant is enrolled. MI Student Aid shall determine if the applicant is eligible for a tuition waiver based upon the application and supporting documentation submitted by the applicant.

It is the responsibility of the college financial aid office to coordinate all sources of aid for which a student may be eligible. Tuition may be waived only to the extent that the tuition is not covered or paid by any other scholarship, trust fund, statutory benefit, or other source of tuition coverage.

Program eligibility ends when a student receives a bachelor's degree, after completing the equivalent of nine semesters (124 semester hours) or 14 terms (180 term hours), whichever occurs first.

Current and future awards are subject to available and approved funding.
