

MI Future Educator Stipend

Fact Sheet for Academic Year 2023-24

Description

The MI Future Educator Stipend provides $9,600 to our future educators who are participating in their required student teaching semester.

Application

Students must complete an application. To complete the application or check the status, the student can log into the MiSSG Student Portal at michigan.gov/missg. The application opens May 1 of each year and closes July 15 of the following year. Fall student teachers may apply beginning May 1, Spring student teachers November 1, and Summer student teachers April 1.

Eligibility

To be eligible for an award, a student must:

- Have completed the MI Future Educator Stipend application.
- Be admitted into an eligible Educator Preparation Program (EPP).
- Be working towards teacher certification.
- Be participating full-time or its equivalency in required student teaching coursework.
 - ◆ Full-time enrollment in required student teaching coursework.
 - ◆ Have 300 or more student contact hours while student teaching.
- Not be employed by the district as a teacher of record.
- Be maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress.

Program Limits

Award amount is up to $9,600 per semester for the applicant's full time, required student teaching semester.

Award amount is not to be counted towards regular financial aid eligibility. Institutions are to pay the student teacher the award amount in full.

Students are limited to one MI Future Educator Stipend, unless their EPP specifically requires they complete more than one semester/term of student teaching in order to become a certified teacher.

MI Future Educator Stipend is available on a first-come first-served basis. Current and future awards are subject to approved and available funding.
