C3.1 Definitions (Contd)

- K. Requirements For Services Essential For Public Health And Safety shall mean gas purchased for food processing and for use by or in connection with hospitals, convalescent homes, nursing homes, medical centers and clinics; water and sewage treatment and waste disposal facilities; civil defense centers and public utility buildings; newspapers, radio and television stations; fire stations, police stations, jails and penal institutions; and such other uses of gas as are found qualified by the Commission as requirements for services essential for public health and safety; provided, however, that requirements for boilers which have alternate fuel capability shall not qualify as requirements for services essential for public health and safety without the express authorization of the Commission.
- L. Residential Gas Requirements shall include all direct natural gas usage for space heating, cooking, water heating, and other residential uses in a single family dwelling or in an individual flat or apartment; or to two or more households served by a single meter (one customer) in a multiple family dwelling, or portion thereof. C3.2 Curtailment of Gas Service for Gas Supply Deficiency

A. Determination of Need for Curtailment

- (1) If at any time the Company cannot provide continuous service to its System Supply Customers because of an inability to procure sufficient gas volumes from its interstate pipeline suppliers or other suppliers, and reliable short term supplies are not available at reasonable and prudent prices, the Company has the right to curtail the distribution of system supply gas to its customers in accordance with the provisions of this Rule.
- (2) In implementing this Rule, however, all sales of system supply gas to other than System Supply Customers shall be curtailed prior to curtailing, limiting or interrupting the distribution of gas to System Supply Customers.
- (3) The Company may separately institute curtailment of its system supply gas in the integrated and non-integrated portions of its total system, consistent with the inability to procure sufficient gas volumes in each respective portion of its system.
- (4) This Curtailment Rule (C3.2) does not apply to gas owned by parties other than the Company.

B. Notice of Curtailment

- (1) The Company shall provide not less than 90 days advance written notice of curtailment to all System Supply Customers expected to be curtailed, except where actions by foreign, federal, state, or local government or regulatory agencies preclude the giving of such notice.
- (2) The Company may immediately curtail or interrupt the distribution of system supply gas to non-System Supply Customers, by oral notice or otherwise, to the extent and for such duration as the Company in its sole judgement shall deem necessary.
- (3) Notification of curtailment shall specify the starting date, an estimate of the length of time the curtailment is expected to be in effect, and the classification of the priorities to be curtailed. Prior to and during the period of curtailment, all customers in curtailment priorities to be affected shall be given not less than 30 days advance written notice of the authorized volumes to which they will be entitled for the following month.

C. Method of Curtailment

- (1) Prior to curtailment, the Company will make a Public Service Announcement for voluntary dial-down actions by System Supply Customers.
- (2) Curtailments shall be made in accordance with the curtailment priorities set forth in Section E of this Rule, beginning with the lowest priority category and proceeding to the next highest priority category. The total curtailment shall equal the estimated deficiency of gas brought about by the demands of all customers purchasing system supply gas in the integrated and/or non-integrated portions of the Company's system.
- (3) Curtailments may be simultaneously instituted in more than one curtailment category provided that gas usage falling within a lower priority category has been completely curtailed.
- (4) When curtailment of less than 100% of the sales volume in a particular curtailment priority is required, the available volumes shall be allocated to each customer assigned to that priority, on a pro-rata basis, using the customer's base period volumes that correspond to the month being curtailed.

C3.2 Curtailment of Gas Service for Gas Supply Deficiency (Contd)

D. Base Period

(1) Base Period for System Supply Customers

- (a) For the purpose of determining the customer's volumes within each curtailment priority category, a twelve month base period shall be established. Such base period shall be fixed for the term of the curtailment. The base period volumes shall be based upon the customer consumption during the same month of the previous calendar year. In those instances where the customer has encountered strikes, interruption of gas service or unavoidable operational abnormalities, the Company may make reasonable adjustments to normalize the customer's requirements. The customer may also request such an adjustment to its base period volumes upon 90-days' advance notice. At the Company's sole discretion, base period volumes may be adjusted for known equipment added or deleted or loads not in operation during the base period.
- (b) In determining monthly consumptions, as specified by the meter measuring the Customer's usage, the Company shall determine the gas used during each month of the period described above for all buildings, parts of buildings, and equipment associated with each customer's gas billing in accordance with the Company's Rules and Regulations. Volumes specified in Curtailment Priorities One through five shall apply in the aggregate for all equipment of the same end use rather than on a unit of equipment basis.
- (c) The monthly consumption so determined, with such adjustments as provided above, shall then be used as the monthly requirement specified in the Curtailment Priority Categories. In determining a customer's Curtailment Priority Category, the applicable monthly requirement in the base period shall be used.

(2) Base Period for Non-System Supply Customers

A base period is not established pursuant to this Rule for non-System Supply Customers. The distribution of system supply gas to non-System Supply Customers is subject to Curtailment Priority Five whereby the Company has sole discretion in determining the extent and duration of curtailment of such Customers.

E. Curtailment Priorities

For purposes of curtailment, five categories are established with Priority Five constituting the lowest priority and Priority One the highest.

PRIORITY FIVE

All non-residential Customers having alternate fuel capability for that portion of their load covered by the alternate fuel and all sales of system supply gas to non-System Supply Customers.

PRIORITY FOUR

Commercial and Industrial Gas Requirements in excess of 41,667 Mcf per the base period month being curtailed.

(1) Base Period for System Supply Customers

- (a) For the purpose of determining the customer's volumes within each curtailment priority category, a twelve month base period shall be established. Such base period shall be fixed for the term of the curtailment. The base period volumes shall consist of the twelve consecutive monthly consumptions ending June of each year. In those instances where the customer has encountered strikes, interruption of gas service or unavoidable operational abnormalities, the Company may make reasonable adjustments to normalize the customer's requirements. Base period volumes may be adjusted for equipment added or deleted.
- (b) In determining monthly consumptions, the Company shall determine the gas used during each month of the period described above for all buildings, parts of buildings, and equipment associated with each customer's gas billing in accordance with the Company's Rules and Regulations. Volumes specified in Curtailment Priorities One through five shall apply in the aggregate for all equipment of the same end use rather than on a unit of equipment basis.

In determining a customer's Curtailment Priority Category, the applicable monthly requirement in the base period shall be used.

(2) Base Period for Non-System Supply Customers

A base period is not established pursuant to this Rule for non-System Supply Customers. The distribution of system supply gas to non-System Supply Customers is subject to Curtailment Priority Five whereby the Company has sole discretion in determining the extent and duration of curtailment of such Customers.

Commercial and Industrial Gas Requirements of 8,334 Mcf to 41,667 Mcf per the base period month being curtailed.

PRIORITY TWO

Commercial Gas Requirements of 1,250 Mcf to 8,334 Mcf per the base period month being curtailed and Industrial Gas Requirements of 8,334 Mcf or less per the base period month being curtailed.

PRIORITY ONE

Residential Gas Requirements, Commercial Gas Requirements of 1,250 Mcf or less per the base period month being curtailed, Requirements for Plant Protection, and Requirements For Services Essential For Public Health And Safety not covered by an alternate fuel.

F. Rate Adjustments

A customer shall not be liable for any part of a monthly service charge provided in a Rate Schedule if such customer's consumption under that rate is completely curtailed for the entire billing period. No other rate adjustments will be permitted.

G. Enforcement

- (1) The Company reserves the right to take special daily meter reads during periods when a curtailment has been instituted pursuant to Part C3.2 of this rule. The Company reserves the right to inspect the customer's equipment, to install special metering, and to immediately terminate gas service for violations of this rule. Once gas service is terminated, the Company may withhold such service until it is satisfied that the terms and conditions of this rule will be observed.
- (2) There is nothing in this rule that shall prevent a customer from challenging before the Commission the continuation of a curtailment or that shall abridge the customer's right to appeal any such determination to the Commission.

H. Penalty

After the Company has provided actual oral or written notice of curtailment to the affected End Use Customer, any gas used by such customer in excess of the volumes authorized during the period when a curtailment has been instituted pursuant to Part C3.2 of this rule will be subject to excess use charges, with such charges being in addition to those normal charges made under the applicable Rate Schedules. The charge for such excess usage shall be the highest price reported for the Mich Con, Michigan Consumers Energy and Chicago LDCs during the period of curtailment as reported by Gas Daily or, in the event that Gas Daily discontinues its reporting of such prices, any comparable reporting services, plus $10 per Mcf. Failure to pay an excess charge when rendered shall subject the customer to termination of gas service.

C3. CURTAILMENT OF GAS SERVICE (Contd)

C3.3 Curtailment of Gas Service During an Emergency

A. Company's Rights to Curtail

The Company recognizes its primary public service obligation is to maintain gas service to its Customers. If, in the event of an emergency arising out of extreme cold weather or other causes referred to as Force Majeure situations the Company determines that its ability to deliver gas may become inadequate to support continuous service to its Customers on its system, the Company shall have the right to partially or completely curtail service to each of its Customers in accordance with the order of curtailment set forth below, irrespective of the contracts in force. This plan applies to all gas sales, transportation and storage service provided by the Company except for gas moving on the Company's gathering systems. The Company will implement this curtailment plan throughout its system to the extent necessary and possible, consistent with its practical operation, considering such factors as system capacity and the extent to which curtailment of Customers in a specific portion of the Company's system may remedy the emergency.

B. Steps Prior to Curtailment

When there is adequate time during an emergency situation, and if applicable, the following steps will be implemented by the Company prior to the enforcement of the curtailment plan established by this rule.

- (1) Interrupt service provided under an "interruptible" rate or contract then in effect;
- (2) Implement contingency contracts for emergency gas supply purchases established in advance. Seek to purchase additional gas supplies at prices which shall be regarded as reasonable and prudent;
- (3) Curtail Deliveries to any customer in excess of volumes allowed under contracts;
- (4) Implement an Operational Flow Order (OFO). An OFO invokes daily-balancing upon transportation Customers and allows the Company to limit both transportation and storage Customers' daily storage withdrawal volumes to that level authorized by the Company. Customers not balancing Deliveries to the Company, with use, and authorized storage withdrawal volumes, on any date during an OFO will be subject to C3.3 penalties applied to such excess usage.
- (5) Make a public service announcement for voluntarily dial-down actions by System Supply Customers;
- (6) Ask transportation Customers to voluntarily reduce use and/or increase Deliveries.

C. Notice of Operational Flow Order (OFO) or Curtailment

If an OFO or curtailment becomes necessary, the Company shall provide notice to the Commission and all affected Customers of the nature, probable duration and extent of such OFO or curtailment. Such notice will be given as far in advance as possible.

C3. CURTAILMENT OF GAS SERVICE (Contd)

C3.3 Curtailment of Gas Service During an Emergency (Contd)

D. Method of Curtailment

- (1) If a curtailment becomes necessary due to Capacity Restrictions, the Company shall determine the amount of firm service capacity that is available (residual firm capacity). The Company shall allocate that residual firm capacity between (i) transportation service provided pursuant to a FERC blanket certificate (Blanket Certificate Customers) and (ii) all other services (Other Customers), such allocation being made pro rata between such two classes of service, based upon the total volumes scheduled for service within each class on the applicable day.
 - (a) The residual firm capacity which is allocated to Blanket Certificate Customers shall be allocated pro rata among the members of that class, based upon volumes scheduled for service by members of that class on the applicable day.
 - (b) The residual firm capacity which is allocated to the Other Customers shall be curtailed in accordance with the curtailment priority categories set forth in Section F of this rule, beginning with Curtailment Priority Five and proceeding to the next highest priority category.
 - (i) Curtailments may be simultaneously instituted in more than one curtailment priority category provided that gas usage falling within a lower priority category is being completely curtailed.
 - (ii) If system deliverability permits only partial delivery of gas to a given priority category of use, curtailment will be effected on the basis of a pro rata sharing using the base period Deliveries to Customers for that priority category. If a customer has entered into an arrangement for voluntary reduction of use and/or increase in Deliveries pursuant to Paragraph(B)(6) above, the volumes associated with such voluntary reductions of use or increase in Deliveries shall be attributed to that customer's pro rata share.
 - (iii) Upon notice of a curtailment, the Company shall give Customers with multiple locations, the option to select which location will be subject to the curtailment, consistent with the practical and physical operational constraints of the Company's system.
- (2) If curtailment becomes necessary due to an emergency situation resulting in a supply deficiency, with no associated Capacity Deficiency, the Company shall curtail gas service in accordance with Section C3.3D(1)(b), subject to the following conditions.
 - (a) Transportation Customers shall have the option of having electronic remote metering installed or of establishing a means acceptable to the Company and the customer of determining daily consumption at the customer's expense. Negative daily imbalances incurred shall be curtailed pursuant to priorities determined as in Section (E) Base Period. Usage in balance with Deliveries (flowing pipeline supplies) on a daily basis is exempt from curtailment under this paragraph.
 - (b) Blanket Certificate Customers are exempt from curtailment.
- (3) If curtailment becomes necessary due to an emergency situation resulting in a Capacity Deficiency, the Company shall curtail gas service in accordance with Section C3.3D(1)(b).

Blanket Certificate Customers are exempt from curtailment.

C3.3 Curtailment of Gas Service During an Emergency (Contd)

E. Base Period

- (1) For the purpose of determining the customer's volumes within each curtailment priority category, a twelve month base period shall be established. Such base period shall be fixed for the term of the curtailment. The base period volumes shall consist of the twelve consecutive monthly Deliveries ending June of each year. In those instances where the customer has encountered strikes, interruption of gas service or unavoidable operational abnormalities, the Company may make reasonable adjustments to normalize the customer's requirements. Base period volumes shall be adjusted for equipment added or deleted and new loads.
- (2) In determining monthly Deliveries, the Company shall determine the gas used during each month of the period described above for all buildings, parts of buildings, and equipment associated with each customer's gas billing in accordance with the Company's Rules and Regulations. Volumes specified in Curtailment Priority One through Five shall apply in the aggregate for all equipment of the same end use rather than on a unit of equipment basis.
- (3) The monthly Deliveries so determined, with such adjustments as provided above, shall then be used as the monthly requirement specified in the Curtailment Priority Categories. In determining a customer's Curtailment Priority Category, the applicable monthly requirement in the base period shall be used.

F. Curtailment Priorities

- (1) For purposes of curtailment, firm end use sales and transportation Customers whose service is not provided pursuant to a blanket certificate issued by the FERC will be treated equally in accordance with the curtailment priority categories set forth. Five categories are established with Priority Five being the first category to be curtailed and Priority One being the last. The Company will implement this curtailment plan throughout its system (except for its gathering systems) to the extent necessary and possible, consistent with its practical operation, considering such factors as system capacity and the extent to which curtailment of Customers in a specific portion of the Company's system may remedy the emergency. Specifically, if curtailment of gas Deliveries to a customer does not provide any relief to the Company, then the Company may continue to provide gas service for the Customers.

PRIORITY FIVE

All non-residential Customers having alternate fuel capability for that portion of their load covered by the alternate fuel and all sales of system supply gas to non-System Supply Customers.

PRIORITY FOUR

Commercial and Industrial Gas Requirements in excess of 41,667 Mcf per the base period month being curtailed.

PRIORITY THREE

PRIORITY ONE

Residential Gas Requirements, Commercial Gas Requirements of 1,250 Mcf or less per the base period month being curtailed, Requirements for Plant Protection, and Requirements For Services Essential For Public Health And Safety not covered by an alternate fuel.

- (2) The volumes of gas destined to end users of other local distribution companies (LDC) shall be classified into the same priority categories as the Company's on-system sales and transportation Customers if the LDC provides the Company with the information necessary to make such a classification and an affidavit verifying the accuracy of such information. Such information shall be provided for each priority category in a manner similar to the information regarding the base period volumes of other Customers as set forth in Paragraph E above. Any volumes for which the LDC fails to provide such information shall be presumed to be in Priority Four.
- (3) During an emergency curtailment of gas service, public utilities that generate and distribute electricity shall be granted Priority One service for that portion of the gas requirements of owned or firm contracted generation necessary to the discharge of the utilities' obligation to provide essential services and for which no practical alternatives exist.
 - (a) Such classification of volumes qualifying for Priority One shall be contingent upon the electric utility exercising due diligence in taking reasonable steps to minimize the use of natural gas during the course of the gas emergency, and consistent with maintenance of electric system integrity. To the extent that certain actions can minimize the use of natural gas, such actions may include, but are not limited to the following:
 - (i) Bring on line any non-gas reserve capacity.
 - (ii) Switch gas fired dual-fuel generating plants to an alternate fuel.
 - (iii) Attempt to procure incremental purchased power.
 - (iv) Curtail all non-firm off-system electric sales.

C3. CURTAILMENT OF GAS SERVICE (Contd)

C3.3 Curtailment of Gas Service During an Emergency (Contd)

F. Curtailment Priorities (Contd)

- (b) If, after having exhausted all available options to minimize the use of natural gas, conditions are such that curtailment of any portion of the remaining gas service to the electric utility will induce the implementation of the Emergency Electrical Procedures, then Priority One capacity shall be allocated to the electric utility:
- (i) Sufficient to obviate the need to implement short-term Emergency Electrical Procedures during the first week of the gas emergency provided that the Company has not invoked curtailment of Priority One Customers. If, however, the emergency is of such a severe nature that Priority One Customers must be curtailed, then the Company shall provide sufficient gas service to the electric utility to allow it to maintain its system integrity as it implements, to the fullest extent required by the emergency, both its short-term and long-term Emergency Electrical Procedures.
- (ii) Or, if the Company has invoked curtailment priorities to a level no deeper than Priority Two, the Company shall provide the electric utility sufficient Priority One service to enable it to avoid the implementation of short-term Emergency Electrical Procedures during the first week of the gas emergency, and sufficient to avoid implementing long-term Emergency Electrical Procedures requiring public notification.
- (iii) Or, if the Company has invoked curtailment priorities to a level no deeper than Priority Three, then the Company shall provide sufficient Priority One service to enable the electric utility to avoid the implementation of both short-term and long-term Emergency Electrical Procedures.

G. Diversion of Customer-Owned Gas During Gas Emergencies

If the Company determines that its ability to deliver gas is inadequate to support continuous service to its Customers on its system and it enforces the curtailment plan established in this rule, the Company shall give end user transportation Customers the option to 1) have their curtailed Deliveries injected into storage with the suspension of any penalties and with no other additional charges; or 2) sell to the Company their flowing pipeline supplies that have been curtailed. The price of the purchased gas will be negotiated between the transportation customer and the Company but be limited to the higher of a) the customer's reasonable costs associated with using alternate fuels during the period of diversion, b) the actual cost of the customer's diverted gas, or c) the highest city gate price of gas for the Company's end users contained in the publication Gas Daily, delivered into the Company's system during the period of diversion. The Company shall not divert gas from transportation Customers who do not have title to the gas being transported unless the owner of such gas voluntarily agrees that its gas may be purchased, borrowed or otherwise diverted by the Company pursuant to Option 1 or 2 above. Nothing in these rules relieves the Company from its obligation, under Act 304, of demonstrating the reasonableness and prudence of its gas purchases.

H. Rate Adjustments

A customer shall not be liable for any part of a monthly service charge provided in a Rate Schedule if such customer's consumption under that rate is completely curtailed for the entire billing period. No other rate adjustments will be permitted unless otherwise provided by contract.

C3. CURTAILMENT OF GAS SERVICE (Contd)

C3.3 Curtailment of Gas Service During an Emergency (Contd)

I. Enforcement

- (1) The Company reserves the right to take special daily meter reads during periods when an Operational Flow Order (OFO) or curtailment has been instituted pursuant to Part C3.3 of this rule. The Company reserves the right to inspect the customer's equipment, to install special metering, and to immediately physically interrupt gas service for violations of this rule. Once gas service is terminated, the Company may withhold such service during the OFO or period of the curtailment until it is satisfied that the terms and conditions of this rule will be observed.
- (2) There is nothing in this rule that shall prevent a customer from challenging before the Commission the continuation of a curtailment or that shall abridge the customer's right to appeal any such determination to the Commission.

J. Penalty

After the Company has provided actual oral or written notice of implementation of and Operational Flow Order (OFO) or curtailment pursuant to Part C3.3 to the affected End Use Customer, any gas used by such customer in excess of the volumes authorized during the period when an OFO or curtailment has been instituted pursuant to Part C3.3 of this rule will be subject to excess use charges, with such charges being in addition to those normal charges made under the applicable Rate Schedules. The charge for such excess usage shall be the highest price reported for the Mich Con, Michigan Consumers Energy and Chicago LDCs during the OFO or period of curtailment as reported by Gas Daily or, in the event that Gas Daily discontinues its reporting of such prices, any comparable reporting service, plus $10 per Mcf. Failure to pay an excess charge when rendered shall subject the customer to termination of gas service.

C3.4 Limitation of Liability

The Company shall, when acting reasonably and prudently in accordance with these rules, not be liable for any loss, cost, damage, injury, or expense that may be sustained by customer by reason of partial or complete curtailment of gas service.

C4. APPLICATION OF RATES (Contd)

C4.7 Aggregation of Accounts (Contd)

Option A: Contiguous Facilities (Contd)

- B. The building or parts of buildings, separated by a public street or alley (but not including a limited-access highway), are situated upon parcels of land which occupy wholly or in part immediately opposite street frontages on the same street or alley and are exclusively occupied and used by the customer as a unitary enterprise at one location and under one management.
- C. The facility designated as the master account shall be subject to and billed under the provisions of its General Service Rate Schedule, Gas Customer Choice Rate Schedule or Transportation Rate Schedule and will pay the master customer charge and the applicable distribution charge or transportation rate. Facilities designated as contiguous to the master account will pay the contiguous customer charge and the applicable distribution charge or transportation rate in effect for its master General Service Rate Schedule, Gas Customer Choice Rate Schedule or Transportation Rate Schedule.

Option B: Non-Contiguous Facilities

A customer receiving gas service at multiple facilities under a common ownership may elect to aggregate the quantities of gas supplied to such facilities if the following conditions are met:

- A. The customer must designate one of the facilities as the master account. The master account must be a transportation account under Rate ST, LT, XLT or XXLT.
- B. Only subsidiary accounts will be eligible for aggregation with the master account. To qualify as a subsidiary account a facility must be served under a sales service Rate Schedule (Rate A, A-1, GS). The customer must specify which of the other facilities will be designated as a subsidiary account.
- C. The facility designated as the master account shall be subject to and billed under the provisions of its transportation tariff. Facilities designated as subsidiary accounts shall be subject to all the terms and conditions of the master account tariff, except that the subsidiary accounts will pay the customer charge and distribution charge in effect for their designated sales rates rather than the customer charge and transportation charge in effect for the master account.

C5. CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITIES

C5.1 Access to Customer's Premises

The Company's authorized agents shall have access to the customer's premises at all reasonable hours, to install, inspect, read, repair, relocate or remove its meters; to install, operate, maintain, relocate and remove other Company property, and to inspect and determine the load characteristics of appliances installed on the customer's premises. Neglect or refusal on the part of the customer to provide reasonable access shall be sufficient cause for shutoff of service by the Company, and assurance of access may be required before service is restored.

C5.2 Bills and Payments

A. Billing Frequency

Bills for gas service shall be rendered on approximately a monthly basis, and shall be due and payable on or before the due date shown on each bill.
