

Kasey McNeally BIO

Kasey McNeally serves as Assistant Program Manager for the Energy and Climate Office at the Superior Watershed Partnership, which distributes MEAP funds and provides energy efficiency education, home weatherization, and solar installations to low-income clients all over Northern Michigan. She has extensive experience in education, municipal government, and social services, and is a passionate advocate for equity, accessibility, and energy security.