

The Rental Development Division provides oversight of Federal and Authority funds to create, maintain and preserve housing and community development projects in order to ensure that decent, affordable and livable places are a reality for every Michigan resident.

