

SECTION 811 PROJECT RENTAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM APPLICATION AND VERIFICATION OF READINESS TO BE REFERRED TO A PROPERTY

This is to be completed, signed by the Service Coordinator (SC), and submitted to MSHDA prior to a referral to a Property.

The property participating in the Michigan Section 811 Project Rental Assistance (811PRA) Program will be required by HUD to verify all income, assets, expenses, deductions, family characteristics, and circumstances that affect family eligibility and rent. For those applicants whose sole source of income is SSI, the documentation will be the least cumbersome. For those applicants who have trust funds or own assets, or will have multiple households members, the process will be more complicated for the property. It is important that applicants are ready to be referred to the property. Incomplete backup documentation could result in the applicant not being housed or the applicant's housing being delayed. Service Coordinators are to compile documents and complete this checklist and submit it to MSHDA. It is not necessary to send the backup documentation to MSHDA, but the checklist confirms that the applicant has the necessary back-up documentation ready. Applicants will not be referred to a property until this checklist is complete and signed.
