

Free MCOLES Registered Law Enforcement Training

Investigation & Identification of Stolen Heavy Equipment/ Watercraft

AM Session:

This patrol-based investigative training course is specifically designed for road patrol police officers, and investigators tasked with investigating stolen vehicles. Attendees will be instructed in the most comprehensive and current theft investigative methods including forensic identification of suspected stolen HEAVY EQUIPMENT, past/present PIN formats, label designs, and locations of factory primary and secondary identification numbers. Attendees will also be briefed on past and present methods used by criminals to alter and conceal the true identity of these machines; in addition, attendees will also be educated on the most current theft trends, other associated crimes, case preparation, and an overview of a variety of theft related investigative databases.

PM Session:

This patrol-based investigative training course is specifically designed for road patrol police officers, and investigators tasked with investigating stolen vehicles. Attendees will be instructed in the most comprehensive and current theft investigative methods including forensic identification of suspected stolen WATERCRAFT past/present HIN formats, label designs, and locations of factory primary and secondary identification numbers. Attendees will also be briefed on past and present methods used by criminals to alter and conceal the true identity of stolen vessels; in addition, attendees will also be educated on the most current theft trends, other associated crimes, case preparation, and an overview of a variety of theft related investigative databases.

Training Presented by:

The Michigan Association of Vehicle Theft Investigators (MAVTI)

Training Hosted by:

Kirtland Community College Department of Public Safety

Training Sponsored by:

The Michigan Automobile Theft Prevention Authority (ATPA)

Date: Friday May 19th, 2023

Time: 8a-4p

Location: Kirtland Community College (Academy Lecture Room)
4800 W. Four Mile Road, Grayling, MI 49738

Cost: FREE to MCOLES licensed police officers, DNR, Motor Carrier, Tribal, and Federal law enforcement officers.

Registration: Please pre-register with Kyle McPhee via email at MAVTI_Training@yahoo.com

*Training format will be a classroom presentation by Ret. D/Sgt. Kyle McPhee,
Michigan State Police/ MAVTI Training Coordinator/ Subject Matter Expert*