

Free MCOLES Registered Law Enforcement Training

Stolen ATVs, UTVs, Snowmobiles, and Motorcycle Forensic ID & Investigation Stolen Heavy Equipment and Watercraft Forensic ID & Investigation

AM Session 8a-12p:

This patrol-based investigative training course is specifically designed for road patrol police officers, and investigators tasked with investigating stolen vehicles. Attendees will be instructed in the most comprehensive and current theft investigative methods including forensic identification of suspected stolen ATVs, UTVs, Snowmobiles and Motorcycles, past/present VIN formats, label designs, and locations of factory primary and secondary identification numbers. Attendees will also be briefed on past and present methods used by criminals to alter and conceal the true identity of these powersport vehicles; in addition, attendees will also be educated on the most current theft trends, other associated crimes, case preparation, and an overview of a variety of theft related investigative databases.

PM Session 1p-5p:

This patrol-based investigative training course is specifically designed for road patrol police officers, and investigators tasked with investigating stolen vehicles. Attendees will be instructed in the most comprehensive and current theft investigative methods including forensic identification of suspected stolen heavy equipment and watercraft, past/present VIN formats, label designs, and locations of factory primary and secondary identification numbers. Attendees will also be briefed on past and present methods used by criminals to alter and conceal the true identity of these machines and vessels; in addition, attendees will also be educated on the most current theft trends, other associated crimes, case preparation, and an overview of a variety of theft related investigative databases.

Training Presented by:

The Michigan Association of Vehicle Theft Investigators (MAVTI)

Training Hosted by:

Law Enforcement Officers Regional Training Commission (LEORTC) / Mott Community College

Training Sponsored by:

The Michigan Automobile Theft Prevention Authority (ATPA)

Date: Tuesday April 18th, 2023

Time: 8a-5p (1 hr. lunch)

Location: Mott Community College, Southern Lakes Branch Center (Room 1206)
2100 W. Thompson Rd., Fenton, MI 48430

Cost: FREE to MCOLES licensed police officers, DNR, Motor Carrier, Tribal, and Federal law enforcement officers.

Registration: Please pre-register with Kyle McPhee via email at MAVTI_Training@yahoo.com

Training format will be a classroom presentation by Ret. D/Sgt. Kyle McPhee, Michigan State Police/ MAVTI
Training Coordinator/ Subject Matter Expert