

Michigan State Police
Criminal Justice Information Center

Sex Crimes: Opposite and Same Sex Offenses

Example of Opposite Sex Offenses

Offense 11001 and 11002 - Sexual Penetration Penis/Vagina CSC 1st and 3rd Degree

- A male is a victim if the offender is female
- A male is a victim if one offender is female, and one or more offenders are male
- A female is a victim if the offender is male
- A female is a victim if one offender is male, and one or more offenders are female

Examples of Same or Opposite Sex Offenses

Offense 11003 and 11004 - Sexual Penetration Oral/Anal, CSC 1st and 3rd Degree

- A male is a victim if his oral or anal openings are sexually penetrated by a male or female
- A female is a victim if her oral or anal openings are sexually penetrated by a male or female

Offense 11005 and 11006 - Sexual Penetration Object, CSC 1st and 3rd Degree

- A male is a victim if his anal opening is penetrated with an object by a male or female
- A female is a victim if her vaginal or anal opening is penetrated with an object by a male or female

Offense 11007 and 11008 - Sexual Contact Forcible, CSC 2nd and 4th Degree

- A male or female can be a victim of unwanted forcible sexual contact by a male or female
- A mentally disabled adult who is incapable of giving consent is a victim of unwanted sexual contact by a male or female

Offense 36001 - Sexual Penetration Non-Forcible, Blood/Affinity, Victim age 13 to 15, Incest

- A 13-year-old male is a victim when having sex with his 17-year-old sister or brother
- A 14-year-old female is a victim when having sex with her aunt or uncle

Offense 36002 - Sexual Penetration Non-forcible, Other, Victim age 13 to 15, Statutory Rape

- A 14-year-old male is a victim if the offender is a 19-year-old male or female neighbor
- A 15-year-old female is a victim if the offender is a 16-year-old male or female friend

Michigan State Police
Criminal Justice Information Center
Crime and Crash Reporting Section
Michigan Incident Crime Reporting
MICRMail@michigan.gov