MVAA's Women Veterans Conference

★ ★ ★ 2025 ★ ★ ★

This October, the Michigan Veterans Affairs Agency (MVAA) will host the fourth statewide conference for the 47,000+ women veterans and veteran service providers who live, work and play in Michigan. The conference is currently being planned, but will follow the same format it has over the past three years with a focus on networking, education and building community.

TEAM UP WITH MVAA

MVAA's Women Veterans Conference 2025 is hosted in partnership with the West Michigan Veterans Coalition and Michigan Women Veterans Coalition. As the central coordinating agency connecting veterans to the benefits they have earned, MVAA works to identify and break down barriers veterans face in employment, education, health care and quality of life.

As a conference sponsor, you directly support this important work, joining MVAA and like-minded organizations committed to serving our nation's heroes.
