The Michigan Women's Commission (MWC) will hold its next public meeting on Tuesday, April 18, 2023, at 1:00 p.m. hosted by Disability Advocates of Kent County at the Special Olympics Community Collaboration Center, 160 68th Street SW, Grand Rapids, MI 49548.

Speakers include Jon Cauchi, Community Education Specialist for Disability Advocates of Kent County, and Channa Edmond-Verley, CEO of Vibrant Futures Leadership. Commissioners will also hear reports from MWC Committees on Unlocking Opportunities, Financial Freedom, Visible Authentic Leadership, and the Committee on Implicit Bias Awareness.

Persons with disabilities needing other accommodations for effective participation in this meeting should contact Cheryl Bergman at 517-249-7777 or by email at bergmanC1@michigan.gov by April 11, 2023, to request visual, hearing, or other assistance. Requests received after that date cannot be guaranteed, but efforts will be made to provide the accommodation requested.

The building is ADA-accessible. Complimentary parking is available.

Public comments may be submitted in advance of the meeting by emailing LEO-MIWomensComm@michigan.gov by 5:00 PM on Friday, April 14, 2023. All comments received in advance will be entered into the meeting minutes and may be read aloud by our meeting moderator during the public comment section of the agenda.

The 15-member Michigan Women's Commission was created by statute in 1968. Commission duties include reviewing the status of women in Michigan, directing attention to critical problems confronting women, conducting surveys, and recognizing women's accomplishments and contributions to Michigan. Commissioners are appointed by the Governor and serve three-year terms.
