Maps and data at EGLE

People with disabilities may request the attached map(s) in an alternate format by emailing EGLE-Accessibility@Michigan.gov or calling 800-662-9278.

Here at the Michigan Department of Environment, Great Lakes, and Energy (EGLE), we create ways to visualize the data we gather to make informed decisions in the work we do.

We have many resources for the public to view our data, including the static map in this document, online interactive maps and apps, visual-rich story maps, and our Maps and Open Data portal where you can download raw datasets.

If you have specific maps- and data-related questions, please contact our Geographic Information Systems (GIS) Team at EGLE-Maps@Michigan.gov and we will do our best to answer.
