- Completion of this form by the security party originally shown on dealer's title application constitutes release of financial interest. A separate lien termination statement is not required.
- The selling dealer assumes the loan and submits this form, the outstanding title (if available), standard title fee, and a correction title application showing the dealer as the new lienholder. The vehicle purchaser's signature is not required.
- A corrected title showing the dealer as the new lienholder will be mailed to the vehicle owner.
