Re: Bert Johnson Legal Defense Fund

Dear Ms. Quiroga:

Thank you for your letter dated August 15, 2017 seeking clarification of the Bert Johnson Legal Defense Fund's (SOS Id #0008) July 20, 2017 Quarterly Transaction Report. After review of the pertinent language in the Legal Defense Fund Act pertaining to, among other things, the definition of "Contribution", I am pleased to report that we have no additions, deletions, amendments or clarifications to the previously-filed report. You may not have seen the media reports or the available public records confirming the appointment of Sen. Johnson's counsel, but Senator Johnson is receiving legal representation from the Federal (public) Defender and, therefore, will not (and has not) raised, received or expended funds in connection with his legal defense.

Again, thank you for your consideration and, of course, please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

Very truly yours,

James P. Allen, Sr.

Attachment

1. A contribution is defined under the Legal Defense Fund Act as follows:

(a) "Contribution" means a payment, gift, subscription, assessment, expenditure, contract, payment for services, dues, advance, forbearance, loan, or donation of money or anything of ascertainable monetary value, or a transfer of anything of ascertainable monetary value to a person, made for or allocated to the purpose of defending an elected official in a criminal, civil, or administrative action that arises directly out of the conduct of the elected official's governmental duties. Contribution includes an officer holder's own money or property, other than the officer holder's homestead, used on behalf of the officer holder's defense, the granting of discounts or rebates not available to the general public, and the endorsing or guaranteeing of a loan for the amount the endorser or guarantor is liable. Contribution does not include an offer or tender of a contribution if expressly and unconditionally rejected, returned, or refunded within 30 business days after receipt.

With this definition in mind, please clarify or confirm that the Legal Defense Fund did not receive any contributions or make any expenditures on or before June 30, 2017.

REMINDER: When filing an amended LDF Statement please include a signed and completed cover page showing which statement is being amended. Include only those pages which are being amended. Submit one original of the amended report.
