Personal Financial Disclosure Filing Obligations

Starting in 2024, certain state-level officeholders and candidates (filers) are required to publicly disclose certain personal financial information in accordance with the changes passed by voters in Proposal 1 of 2022 and as promulgated under Public Acts 281 – 284 and Public Act 267 of 2023. These requirements apply to all current officeholders and all candidates for any of the following state-level positions:

- Governor
- Lieutenant Governor
- Secretary of State
- Attorney General
- State Senator
- State Representative

Information required to be disclosed

- Employers
- Spouse employment and lobbying information
- Earned and unearned income
- Property and other assets
- Securities/investments
- Liabilities
- Positions in organizations
- Blind trusts
- Employment agreements
- Lobbyist interactions
- Interests with state contract

How to file

The Bureau of Elections (BOE) has developed an electronic filing system, called Michigan Transparency Network (or MiTN), for completing and submitting personal financial disclosure filings, which are then published to the BOE website for public viewing.

> Official forms and instructions are available for all filers at the BOE Personal Financial Disclosure page (www.michigan.gov/sos/elections/disclosure)

Dates and deadlines

The Bureau of Elections (BOE) has developed the required electronic and paper forms, including instructions for completion, that must be used to submit filings, which will be published to the BOE website for public viewing. All officeholders and candidates should mark their 2026 calendars with the following information to help them prepare:

> May 15, 2026: All public officers for those specific offices must file and certain candidates for those office must file on or before this date.

Late filing fees will be assessed for any filings received late or not received at all.
