ORDER GRANTING PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY DISPOSITION

FINAL OPINION AND JUDGMENT

The Tribunal issued a Proposed Order Granting Petitioner's Motion for Summary Disposition, Order Denying Petitioner's Motion for Costs, Order Denying Respondent's Request for Costs, and Proposed Opinion and Judgment (POJ) on August 11, 2020. The POJ states, in pertinent part, "[t]he parties have 20 days from date of entry of this POJ to notify the Tribunal in writing, by mail or by electronic filing, if available, if they do not agree with the POJ and to state in writing why they do not agree with the POJ (i.e., exceptions)."

Neither party has filed exceptions to the POJ.

The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) considered the testimony and evidence and made specific findings of fact and conclusions of law. The ALJ's determination is supported by the testimony and evidence and applicable statutory and case law.

Given the above, the Tribunal adopts the POJ as the Tribunal's final decision in this case.<sup>1</sup> The Tribunal also incorporates by reference the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law contained in the POJ in this Final Opinion and Judgment. As a result:

Parcel No. 30-006-123-301-15 shall be granted an exemption, under MCL 211.7n, for the 2019 tax year.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IT IS ORDERED that the officer charged with maintaining the assessment rolls for the tax year(s) at issue shall correct or cause the assessment rolls to be corrected to reflect the property's exemption within 20 days of entry of this Final Opinion and Judgment, subject to the processes of equalization.<sup>2</sup> To the extent that the final level of assessment for a given year has not yet been determined and published, the assessment rolls shall be corrected once the final level is published or becomes known.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the officer charged with collecting or refunding the affected taxes shall collect taxes and any applicable interest or issue a refund within 28 days of entry of this Final Opinion and Judgment. If a refund is warranted, it shall include a proportionate share of any property tax administration fees paid and penalty and interest paid on delinquent taxes. The refund shall also separately indicate the amount of the taxes, fees, penalties, and interest being refunded. A sum determined by the Tribunal to have been unlawfully paid shall bear interest from the date of payment to the date of judgment, and the judgment shall bear interest to the date of its payment. A sum determined by the Tribunal to have been underpaid shall not bear interest for any time period prior to 28 days after the issuance of this Final Opinion and Judgment. Pursuant to MCL 205.737, interest shall accrue (i) after December 31, 2009, at the rate of 1.23% for calendar year 2010, (ii) after December 31, 2010, at the rate of 1.12% for calendar year 2011, (iii) after December 31, 2011, through June 30, 2012, at the rate of 1.09%, (iv) after June 30, 2012, through June 30, 2016, at the rate of 4.25%, (v) after June 30, 2016, through December 31, 2016, at the rate of 4.40%, (vi) after December 31, 2016, through June 30, 2017, at the rate of 4.50%, (vii) after June 30, 2017, through December 31, 2017, at the rate of 4.70%, (viii) after December 31, 2017, through June 30, 2018, at the rate of 5.15%, (ix) after June 30, 2018, through December 31, 2018, at the rate of 5.41%, (x) after December 31, 2018 through June 30, 2019, at the rate of 5.9%, (xi) after June 30, 2019 through December 31, 2019, at the rate of 6.39%, (xii) after December 31, 2019, through June 30, 2020, at the rate of 6.40%, and (xiii) after June 30 2020, through December 31, 2020, at the rate of 5.63%.

This Final Opinion and Judgment resolves all pending claims in this matter and closes this case.

APPEAL RIGHTS

If you disagree with the final decision in this case, you may file a motion for reconsideration with the Tribunal or a claim of appeal with the Michigan Court of Appeals.

A motion for reconsideration must be filed with the Tribunal with the required filing fee within 21 days from the date of entry of the final decision.<sup>3</sup> Because the final decision closes the case, the motion cannot be filed through the Tribunal's web-based e-filing system; it must be filed by mail or personal service. The fee for the filing of such motions is $50.00 in the Entire Tribunal and $25.00 in the Small Claims Division, unless the Small Claims decision relates to the valuation of property and the property had a principal residence exemption of at least 50% at the time the petition was filed or the decision relates to the grant or denial of a poverty exemption and, if so, there is no filing fee.<sup>4</sup> You are required to serve a copy of the motion on the opposing party by mail or personal service or by email if the opposing party agrees to electronic service, and proof demonstrating that service must be submitted with the motion.<sup>5</sup> Responses to motions for reconsideration are prohibited and there are no oral arguments unless otherwise ordered by the Tribunal.<sup>6</sup>

A claim of appeal must be filed with the Michigan Court of Appeals with the appropriate filing fee. If the claim is filed within 21 days of the entry of the final decision, it is an “appeal by right.” If the claim is filed more than 21 days after the entry of the final decision, it is an “appeal by leave.”<sup>7</sup> You are required to file a copy of the claim of appeal with filing fee with the Tribunal in order to certify the record on appeal.<sup>8</sup> The fee for certification is $100.00 in both the Entire Tribunal and the Small Claims Division, unless no Small Claims fee is required.<sup>9</sup>

PROPOSED ORDER GRANTING
PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY DISPOSITION
ORDER DENYING PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR COSTS
ORDER DENYING RESPONDENT'S REQUEST FOR COSTS

PROPOSED OPINION AND JUDGMENT

INTRODUCTION

On June 11, 2020, Petitioner filed Motions requesting that the Tribunal enter summary judgment in its favor in the above-captioned case under MCR 2.116(C)(10) and award Petitioner costs. On June 30, 2020, Respondent filed a response to the Motions, which also requests costs.

The Tribunal has reviewed the Motions, the Response, and the case file and finds that the granting of Petitioner's Motion for Summary Disposition is warranted and that the denial of Petitioner's Motion for Costs and Respondent's Request for Costs is also warranted.

PETITIONER'S CONTENTIONS

In support of its Motion, Petitioner contends that the subject property is exempt from ad valorem taxation under MCL 211.7n, as the property is a residential dormitory that was used by Petitioner for the purposes for which it was incorporated and that 56 students lived in the dormitory during the 2018-2019 school year.

RESPONDENT'S CONTENTIONS

In support of its Response, Respondent contends that the subject property is entitled to exemption and is exempt beginning with the 2020 tax year under MCL 211.7n, as it is being used as a residential dormitory for that tax year. Respondent also contends that the property was not entitled to the exemption for the 2019 tax year because an occupancy permit was issued January 8, 2019, which was after the tax day for that tax year (i.e., December 31, 2018).<sup>1</sup> Respondent further contends that the property's utility bills support its claim and that the property's renovation does not constitute occupancy for purposes of the exemption.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

As for the Tribunal's review of the instant Motion for Summary Disposition, there are no specific Tribunal rules governing motions for summary disposition. Thus, the Tribunal is bound to follow the Michigan Rules of Court in rendering a decision on the Motion.<sup>2</sup>

With respect to the instant Motions, Petitioner moves for summary disposition under MCR 2.116(C)(10) and such motions test the factual support for a claim and must identify those issues regarding which the moving party asserts there is no genuine issue of material fact. Under subsection (C)(10), a motion for summary disposition will be granted if the documentary evidence demonstrates that there is no genuine issue of material fact, and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.<sup>3</sup>

In resolving such motions, the Michigan Supreme Court has established that a court must consider affidavits, pleadings, depositions, admissions, and documentary evidence filed by the parties in the light most favorable to the non-moving party.<sup>4</sup> The moving party bears the initial burden of supporting its position by presenting its documentary evidence for the court to consider.<sup>5</sup> The burden then shifts to the opposing party to establish that a genuine issue of disputed facts exists.<sup>6</sup> Where the burden of proof at trial on a dispositive issue rests on a non-moving party, the non-moving party may not rely on mere allegations or denials in pleadings but must go beyond the pleadings to set forth specific facts showing that a genuine issue of material fact exists.<sup>7</sup> If the opposing party fails to present documentary evidence establishing the existence of a material factual dispute, the motion is properly granted.<sup>8</sup>

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Tribunal, having given careful consideration to the Motion for Summary Disposition and the Response under MCR 2.116(C)(10), finds that there are no genuine issues of material fact and that the granting the summary disposition in favor of Petitioner is warranted for the 2019 tax year.<sup>9</sup> More specifically, MCL 211.7n is a tax exemption statute, and, as such, the Tribunal is required to “strictly construe” that statute “in favor of the taxing authority.”<sup>10</sup> That does not, however, mean that the Tribunal “should give a strained construction which is adverse to the Legislature’s intent.”<sup>11</sup> In that regard, MCL 211.7n provides, in pertinent part, “[r]eal estate or personal property owned and occupied by nonprofit theater, library, educational, or scientific institutions incorporated under the laws of this state with the buildings and other property thereon while occupied by them solely for the purposes for which the institutions were incorporated is exempt from taxation under this act.”

Finally, the requested exemption is an established class of exemption and, as a result, Petitioner is required to establish the property’s entitlement to that exemption by a preponderance of the evidence.<sup>12</sup>

Here, there is no dispute that Petitioner owns the property or that Petitioner is a nonprofit educational institution. Rather, the only dispute relates to Respondent’s contention that the exemption claim should be denied because the parcel was not <sup>9</sup> Although the property’s assessment for the 2020 tax year was “added automatically” to this case given the establishment of the assessment for that tax year, Respondent has indicated that it has exempted the property for the 2020 tax year. See MCL 205.737(5)(a).

occupied as of the relevant tax day. More specifically, Respondent contends that Petitioner failed to maintain a regular physical presence at the property at the property, as provided by the Supreme Court in Liberty Hill Housing Corp v City of Livonia.<sup>13</sup> Said contention is, however, irrelevant, as Respondent has admitted that there is no dispute that the subject property became tax-exempt beginning in tax year 2020 because Petitioner was by that time occupying or using the property in accordance with its stated educational mission. To that point, MCL 211.53d(2) states:

For taxes levied after December 31, 1997, the assessment roll for each tax year shall be corrected to reflect that improvements to real property assessed on that tax roll as partially completed new construction and the land on which the improvements are located are exempt from the collection of taxes under this act if the improvements and the land on which the improvements are located are determined to be exempt from taxes collected under this act on tax day in the year construction of the improvements was completed and the property was put to use.

Given the above, it is appropriate to correct the assessment roll for the 2019 tax year to exempt the property under MCL 211.7n, as the property's renovations were completed by December 31, 2019 and the property was, as indicated by Respondent occupied or, more appropriately, used for a tax exempt purpose on that date.

<sup>13</sup> See Liberty Hill Housing Corp v City of Livonia, 480 Mich 44, 58; 746 NW2d 282 (2008), which provides, in pertinent part, "we conclude that to occupy property under MCL 211.7o(1), the charitable institution must at a minimum have a regular physical presence on the property." Although the decision in Liberty Hill relates to MCL 211.7o and not MCL 211.7n, the Tribunal finds that the holding in that case is applicable to the instant case. In that regard, see Spartan Stores, Inc v City of Grand Rapids, 307 Mich App 565, 569; 861 NW2d 347 (2014), which provides, in pertinent part:

The primary goal of statutory interpretation "is to discern and give effect to the intent of the Legislature." Lafarge Midwest, Inc v Detroit, 290 Mich App 240, 246; 801 NW2d 629 (2010). "When ascertaining the Legislature's intent, a reviewing court should focus first on the plain language of the statute in question . . . ." Fisher Sand & Gravel Co v Neal A Sweebe, Inc, 494 Mich 543, 560; 837 NW2d 244 (2013) (citations omitted). The contested portions of a statute "must be read in relation to the statute as a whole and work in mutual agreement." US Fidelity & Guarantee Co v Michigan Catastrophic Claims Ass'n (On Rehearing), 484 Mich 1, 13; 795 NW2d 101 (2009). [Emphasis added.]

Finally, see also the unpublished opinion per curiam issued by the Michigan Court of Appeals on August 13, 2019 (Docket No. 343662) at p 4-5.

With respect to Petitioner's Motion for Costs and Respondent's Request for Costs, the Tribunal finds that an award of costs is not warranted. In that regard, the issue of costs is within the discretion of the Tribunal and said discretion is generally only exercised when a claim is frivolous or imposed for any improper purpose or a party has caused any undue delay or engaged in any behavior of a nature that would justify an award of costs.<sup>14</sup> Here, the parties' respective claims do not appear to be frivolous or improperly imposed and neither party has caused any undue delay or engaged in any such behavior.<sup>15</sup>

PROPOSED JUDGMENT

IT IS ORDERED that Petitioner's Motion for Summary Disposition is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the property is EXEMPT from ad valorem taxation for the 2019 tax year under MCL 211.7n.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Petitioner's Motion for Costs is DENIED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent's Request for Costs is DENIED.

EXCEPTIONS

This is a proposed decision ("POJ") prepared by the Michigan Administrative Hearings System and not a final decision.<sup>16</sup> As such, no action should be taken based on this decision, as the parties have 20 days from date of entry of this POJ to notify the Tribunal in writing if they do not agree with the POJ and to state in writing why they do not agree with the POJ (i.e., exceptions).

Exceptions are limited to the evidence submitted and any matter addressed in the POJ. There is no fee for filing exceptions and the opposing party has 14 days from the date the exceptions were mailed to that party to file a written response to the exceptions.<sup>17</sup>

<sup>14</sup> See TTR 209(1) (i.e., "[t]he granting of costs and attorney fees are within the discretion of the Tribunal." That rule is, however, silent as to the standards that are to be applied in making such determinations and the Tribunal, in exercising such discretion, generally looks to whether a claim or defense was frivolous or imposed for any improper purpose. See also TTR 215, MCL 24.323, MCR 2.114, and Aberdeen of Brighton, LLC v City of Brighton, unpublished opinion per curiam issued by the Court of Appeals on October 16, 2012 (Docket No. 301826).

<sup>15</sup> MCL 211.53d is a relatively obscure and seldom used statutory provision that was added to address a specific situation relating to a religious broadcasting station that was denied an exemption by the Tribunal because there was no regular physical presence on the property during the construction of that broadcasting station.

Exceptions and responses filed by e-mail or facsimile will not be considered in the rendering of the Final Opinion and Judgment. A copy of a party's written exceptions or response must be sent to the opposing party by mail or email, if email service is agreed upon by the parties, and proof must be submitted to the Tribunal demonstrating that the exceptions or response were served on the opposing party.

After the expiration of the time period for the opposing party to file a response to the exceptions, the Tribunal will review the case file, including the POJ and all exceptions and responses, if any, and:

1. Issue a Final Opinion and Judgment (FOJ) adopting the POJ as the final decision.
2. Issue an FOJ modifying the POJ and adopting the Modified POJ as the final decision.
3. Issue an Order vacating the POJ and ordering such other action as is necessary and appropriate.
