C. The property's TCV and TV are at issue for each tax year under appeal.

D. Petitioner's claims or counterclaims: Petitioner contends that the subject property is over assessed and a reduction in TCV and TV is warranted. Petitioner purchased the subject property on May 26, 2020, for $340,000. Petitioner submits that the subject property's current use is a fast-food restaurant. For its Valuation Disclosure, Petitioner provided two (2) real estate listings consisting of what appears to be a bar/restaurant and the other a used cars sales business. Petitioner submits the subject property should be valued at $240,000, based on the values given to the two commercial properties that Petitioner submitted in its Valuation Disclosure, although relatively little information concerning those properties was provided and no adjustments were made in relation to the subject property.

E. Respondent's claims or counterclaims: Respondent submits that it has properly and lawfully assessed Petitioner's property. In support of its case, Respondent submitted a 2021 property record card, 2021 valuation report, 2021 ECF study, 2021 land sale study, 2022 property record card, 2022 valuation report, 2022 ECF study, and 2022 land sale study.

Respondent's counsel also noted at the prehearing conference, that neither of Petitioner's witnesses signed the valuation disclosure and are not qualified to render an expert opinion in the matter.

IV. PENDING MOTIONS OR DISCOVERY:

F. Motions: None pending at this time.

G. Discovery: Discovery is closed unless otherwise stated below.
