PREHEARING CONFERENCE SUMMARY

I. SHOW CAUSE HEARING

- A. The prehearing conference commenced as a Show Cause Hearing given Petitioner's failure to file and exchange its valuation disclosure and prehearing statement, on or before May 19, 2022, as ordered by the Tribunal in its November 2, 2021 Prehearing General Call and Order of Procedure.
- B. The November 2, 2021 Prehearing General Call Order provided in pertinent part the following:

Parties are required to submit a valuation disclosure or written notification that no valuation disclosure is required by the dates indicated herein.

IT IS ORDERED that the parties shall:

a. If no valuation disclosure is required, notify the Tribunal and the opposing parties in writing within 21 days of entry of this Order that no valuation disclosure is being filed. The notice shall indicate the reason or reasons why no valuation disclosure is required (i.e., exemption claim, etc.).

b. If a valuation disclosure is required, file and exchange their valuation disclosures by May 19, 2022. Valuation disclosures will not be admitted into evidence unless disclosed and furnished in accordance with this Order (even though admissible) except upon a finding of good cause by the Tribunal.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall file and exchange their Prehearing Statements by May 19, 2022. Witnesses will not be allowed to testify unless disclosed in the Prehearing Statement and the Prehearing Statement is furnished in accordance with this Order except upon a finding of good cause by the Tribunal. Failure to file the Prehearing Statement may result in holding a party or parties in default, as provided by TTR 237. [emphasis in bold added.]

- C. Petitioner's counsel explained that they had experienced some turnover at their office, had started working on the prehearing statement yesterday, and are considering filing a motion to have the case transferred to the small claims division. Respondent objected to Petitioner's potential request to have the case transferred to the small claims division and submits that a transfer would be prejudicial since Respondent timely filed its valuation and prehearing statement.

- D. Based on the above, the Tribunal finds that Petitioner has not show good cause to offer its valuation disclosures or witnesses because of its failure to file both its valuation disclosure and prehearing statement as previously ordered.
- E. Therefore, the Tribunal finds there is no good cause to allow Petitioner to offer its valuation disclosure for admittance into evidence or to offer its witnesses to testify. [emphasis in bold added.]
