Public Comment – Agenda Items 3-14 Only (Item 2 on agenda):

Amy Dehaan appeared before the Commission on behalf of Michigan Assessors Association regarding agenda item 9, Approval of Revised Audit of Minimum Assessing Requirements (AMAR) Review Sheet. Ms. Dehaan stated the following: I just wanted to talk a little about the AMAR Review Sheet because we were talking as the Association and those that worked on the work group. We agreed there were going to be no more land value maps, yet they are still on the AMAR Review Sheet. I was told by several people that were at the Summit that staff said land value maps are still a good idea. Which they are in your office, but this just feels like someone is trying to set us up to fail. We do not want it to be something that is just checked off and you have to have a corrective action plan to have those land value maps. We were wondering why that is even on the list.
