

GOVERNOR GRETCHEN WHITMER

CONNECTING FAMILIES. BUSINESSES, AND COMMUNITIES TO HIGH-SPEED INTERNET

Governor Whitmer believes every family and business in Michigan deserves access to a reliable, affordable high-speed internet connection that meets their needs. High-speed internet expands economic opportunity for families, enhances educational experiences for students, and allows for remote access to key health care services.

Increasing high-speed internet for homes and businesses

- Set a state goal to provide 100% access to high-speed internet and 95% adoption by households during the next five years.
- Created the Michigan High-Speed Internet Office and the Connecting Michigan Task Force to coordinate the state's high-speed internet work and align the work with economic development opportunities.
- Since taking office, connected over 33,000 homes, businesses, and unserved locations to high-speed internet access.
- Announced a $203 million investment to connect over 70,000 unserved homes, businesses, and locations to high-speed internet through the Realizing Opportunity with Broadband Infrastructure Networks grant program.
- Mapped high-speed internet access in all 83 counties.
- Won \$6.3 million grant from the National Telecommunications and Information Administration to expand high-speed internet and pursue digital equity.
- Announced \$61 million in grants to build 525 miles of high-speed internet.
- Named a Chief Connectivity Officer to lead the state's broadband efforts and leverage funding from the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law (BIL).
- Signed the Broadband Expansion Act of Michigan, codifying the Connecting Michigan Communities Grant Program, a grant program to fill internet access gaps in underserved communities.